

Did you know?

The Christmas season is a time of warmth and celebration. But for the thousands of individuals affected by domestic sex-trafficking in metro Atlanta, the idea of a safe and hopeful holiday could not be further from reality.

13,000 men in Georgia pay for sex with a minor, each month.

In Georgia, the average age of a girl first sold into sex trafficking is 14 years old.

Since 2009, youth from more than 91% of Georgia counties have been referred through the state's help line.

About Wellspring Living

The Georgia Festival of Trees is committed to seeing an end to sex trafficking in our community. Your partnership helps restore the lives of sex trafficking survivors being cared for by GA-based Wellspring Living.

Founded in 2001, Wellspring Living is a non-profit organization in Atlanta, GA devoted to safeguarding and empowering domestic sex trafficking victims and those at risk.
