

To register for our next Diocesan CDI:

What you as a participant commit to:

- Your time and energy
- Attendance at all Saturday sessions and commit to online learning for both cycles (4 Saturdays per cycle/year total of 8 Saturdays over two cycles/years)
- Preparation before the Saturday work day by viewing the video material and reading assigned sections prior to Saturday's session.
- To purchase additional books from course reading list (total cost of about $100)
- Completing two Congregational Development projects
- Coming prepared with a willingness to participate, to learn, to try, to fail, to succeed, to share, to laugh and to have fun!

A question frequently asked is: Who will be a good participant for this training?

- If you are expecting a lecture based program where you will sit and take notes – no you won't be happy.
- If you want to practice 'flipping the classroom' where you view and read the material ahead of time and then practice, share and reflect on behaviors, attitudes and group situations during our training time then this is for you.
 - We will have short mini teachings and reviews with an emphasis on doing. This doing will be reflecting on and learning from our experience together about self, group, the organizations and the world.
 - Sound interesting??? Then this is for you.
