

Cyber Civics and Media Literacy Training ...

The Good, the Bad and the Ugly

Tuesday, December 13, 2016

John XXIII Pastoral Center, Charleston, WV

Facilitator – Diana Graber, Cyberwise, Inc.

Diana Graber is a recognized expert on digital literacy and how technology impacts human behavior. She is co-founder of CyberWise and the founder of a media literacy program called Cyber Civics. Her Cyber Civics program was recently recognized as an "Innovation in Education" finalist by Project Tomorrow and the O.C. Tech Alliance and is now being taught at schools in 20 states and internationally.

Sponsored by

The West Virginia Foundation for Rape Information and Services

Lesson demonstrations and information will focus on Digital Citizenship, including Ethical Thinking in Digital Spaces, Cyberbullying and Digital Drama and Online Privacy. Attendees will learn how to help students use critical thinking to analyze media messages to protect themselves from the downside of tech use --- like sexting, gender-bias and stereotypes.

Who Should Attend:

Prevention Educators, Adolescent Health Coordinators, Pro Officers, Teachers, School Staff (K-12), Counselors, Health Educators, Pro Officers, School Administrators and others wanting to develop digital civics and media literacy skills.

Cost for the Training - $10.00 for WV Participants
