Family Fishing Day Returns to Rockefeller Lagoon on June 28, 2025

CLEVELAND, OH – June 28, 2025 – The Doan Brook Watershed Partnership (DBWP), in collaboration with Cleveland Metroparks, is thrilled to announce the return of our annual Family Fishing Day on Saturday, June 28, 2025, from 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM at Rockefeller Lagoon.

This free, family-friendly event invites individuals of all ages and skill levels to experience the joys of fishing and connect with the Doan Brook watershed. No fishing license is required, making it an ideal opportunity for beginners and seasoned anglers alike.

Event Highlights:

- Free Fishing Rods and Bait: Available for registered youth participants while supplies last.
- Expert Instruction: Experienced fishing instructors from Cleveland Metroparks will be on-site to assist attendees.
- Educational Activities: Engage in watershed education and learn about local aquatic ecosystems. Visit tables hosted by partners doing important work across the Doan Brook Watershed and beyond!
- Accessibility: The venue is wheelchair accessible, ensuring an inclusive experience for all attendees.

Event Details:

- Date: Saturday, June 28, 2025
- Time: 10:00 AM – 2:00 PM
- Location: Rockefeller Lagoon, across from 7 Martin Luther King Jr. Drive, Cleveland, OH 44106
- Parking: Available at the VA Parking Garage (1606 E 105th St, Cleveland, OH 44106) on levels 3 and 4. Entrance off Magnolia Drive.
- Admission: Free.

Registration: Pre-registration is encouraged to ensure availability of fishing rods and bait. Walk-up participants are also welcome. To register, please visit the official event page:
