The FRIENDS of the Heights Libraries is now accepting applications through May 31st from residents of Cleveland Heights and University Heights, as well as non-resident employees of the Heights Library system, for the Library Education Scholarship. Applicants will be notified June 15th. For full information and application materials see: <https://www.friendsheightslibraries.org/library-science-scholarship/>

The Friends of Heights Libraries offers Scholarships for Graduate Studies in Library Science

The Friends are actively recruiting for a new Board Member. Our all-volunteer organization needs a dedicated individual who will help organize, plan, and run multiple programs to help support the Heights Libraries and its larger community.
