Reflections on the Weekend Scriptures

Acts 14:21-27 / Revelation 21:1-5a / John 13:31-33a, 34-35

- Love is not easy. Even the love we have for a child, a spouse, a parent, or a significant other takes work. We have to overlook certain things that may annoy or anger us. The favors we do for them may be difficult and draining. Over time, we struggle with showing our love as we want to. So Jesus' command to love one another is a challenge to begin with. When he adds, "As I have loved you" it becomes nearly impossible (John 13:34). After all, he laid down his life for his disciples. How can we match that? God willing, we never will have to. But we love one another as Jesus loves us when we sacrifice our own wishes for those we love. In so doing, we are both obeying and imitating the Lord. We pray that we may continue to do so without complaint, without resentment, without giving up.
- For love of us, God entrusted the entire human race to the Son. Who is entrusted to us in love? In the marriage vow, partners entrust themselves to each other. Our children are entrusted to us from birth or adoption. Aging parents may entrust themselves to us. We may be entrusted with others' lives as a teacher, a mentor, or in military service. We care for those entrusted to us with a love that bonds us to the other person in a reflection of that bond that Jesus established with us.
- The bonds we share with those we love transcend time and space. They even transcend death. Those who have died in Christ, says John in Revelation, are citizens of the new Jerusalem, where "there shall be no more death or mourning" (21:4). Because Jesus has redeemed us, "the old order has passed away" (21:4). In the new order, if you will, the blind see, the deaf hear, the lame dance, and the dead rise to new life: "Behold, I make all things new" (21:5).

Question of the Week

Who is entrusted to me in love?
What have I done to reinforce and strengthen that bond between us?

Acts 15:1-2, 22-29 / Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23 / John 14:23-29

Feeding the Flock

The vision of a new heaven and a new earth as depicted in the Book of Revelation serves as a profound reminder of the transformative power of love and community. This eschatological promise not only signifies a future filled with hope and renewal but also calls upon us to embody the principles of compassion and kindness in our daily lives. The imagery of a restored creation invites believers to reflect on their responsibilities toward one another, emphasizing that the essence of faith is rooted in the relationships we cultivate with our neighbors. In this context, the call to love is not merely a suggestion but a fundamental tenet that shapes our interactions and defines our moral compass.

Central to this message is the example set by Christ, whose love for humanity serves as the ultimate model for how we should treat one another. His teachings and actions exemplify selflessness, empathy, and a deep commitment to the well-being of others. By following Christ's example, we are encouraged to extend our love beyond mere words, actively engaging in acts of service and support for those around us. This love is not limited to those who are easy to love; rather, it challenges us to reach out to the marginalized, the suffering, and even those who may oppose us. In doing so, we participate in the creation of a community that reflects the values of the new heaven and new earth.

Ultimately, the call to love our neighbor as Christ loved us is a transformative journey that requires intentionality and dedication. It invites us to reconsider our priorities and to recognize the inherent dignity in every individual. As we strive to embody this love, we contribute to the realization of a more just and compassionate world, one that mirrors the divine vision of harmony and peace. In this way, the teachings of Revelation not only inspire hope for the future but also empower us to take meaningful action in the present, fostering a spirit of unity and understanding among all people.

Coffee Hour Assistance There is need for assistance with the coffee hour following the 8:30 Mass on a rotating basis. It requires a bit of time before Mass to set up and assistance in breaking down as well. If you can help with this, please speak with Geri. We do need assistance.

Anniversary Project To celebrate the 25th Anniversary, we will completely change the front landscaping of the church replacing bushes and grass with smaller bushes, perennials and ground cover. We will also install “on demand” watering to keep it green. We expect this project to take shape the beginning of May. The construction is moving slowly and no doubt will extend into June and perhaps later.

Looking for a parish? Why not consider St. Patrick's for your new spiritual home? Convenient and timely Masses, warm and accepting community and scriptural sermons. Visit us and join us as we journey together. Now in our 25th year as a parish.

Summer BBQ Luncheon

Join us on Sunday, June 1st for our Summer BBQ. Utilizing the skills of Great Northern BBQ, we will be serving up some of the finest in the state! Rain or shine event under our pavilion or church basement. There is no expense for this event, but an accurate count is necessary. Sign up for a great time at the bulletin board!

Anointing of the Sick Following all masses on the first weekend of each month. All are invited.

Parish Necrology. During the Month of May, we remember our deceased parishioner Armand Lefebvre 21st) Eternal Rest grant unto him O Lord!

Mass Intentions Needed There is no greater act of charity than to remember a loved one with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. When we have a Mass offered for someone, we pray for them and ask for a merciful judgment. Common time to offer Masses is on birthday remembrances, special holy days and also the anniversary of someone's death. There is a form to request this at the entrance of the church.

Reminder to Visitors We are pleased that you chose to visit us for Holy Mass. Please keep in mind that nothing here is free, but is paid for by the parish from offerings received.. Please be prepared to make a generous offering as the collector passes through the congregation right after the sermon. Thank you.
