

AFRICAN SYMPOSIUM

Invites you to

The Annual Wildlife Conservation in Africa: The New Way Forward

The Annual Wildlife Conservation in Africa: The New Way Forward is an interactive convening of experts, diplomats, activists and compassionate citizens, to discuss wildlife conservation efforts in Africa through the lens of Sustainable Development Goal (SDG) 15- Life on Land and in celebration of the United Nations designated World Wildlife Day. A networking reception will follow the program.

Tuesday, March 3, 2020
2- 6 PM

The Rubin Museum of Art
150 W 17th St, New York, NY 10011

REGISTER NOW

Conference Launch & Opening Statement

H.E Ambassador Lazarus O. Amayo
Kenyan Mission to the UN

H.E. Ambassador Valentina Rugwabiza
Rwandan Mission to the UN

H.E. Ambassador Jean-Claude Félix do Rego
Beninese Mission to the UN

Moderator Dr. Djibril Diallo
CEO African Renaissance and Diaspora Network

Challenges facing African Wildlife Conservation

Angela Grimes, CEO
Born Free USA

Lexi Bowes-Lyon, Director of Fundraising
Space for Giants

Edwin Tambara, Director of External Affairs
African Wildlife Foundation

The Next Generation of Conservationists, Education & Community Engagement

Alexandra Mor, Jewelry Designer & Artistic Director
Alexandra Mor

Esther Agbarakwe, Climate Change Activist
Nigeria Youth Climate Coalition

Fleurie LeClercq, Children's Book Author
NDE Media Group

Networking Break: Featuring THE MAGNIFICENT DOZEN: Endangered Animals

Paintings by Zigi Ben-Haim

Technology & Innovative Solutions for Wildlife Conservation

Dr. David O'Connor, Permanent Observer
IUCN

Dr. Dale Jamieson, Director
NYU Center for Environmental & Animal Protection

Closing Remarks and Ways Forward

Merchandise by Same Sky Foundation

