Summit Lift Update

Antelope Butte just recently received a new gear box for the Summit Lift! Big thank you to The Security State Bank of Wyoming for their generous gift that made this possible. Installation & tests are underway. The maintenance and ski patrol will run the lift, do alignment checks and begin to prepare for our acceptance testing with the Forest Service. We are hoping to have the lift open this season in March! As always, the safety of our customers and community is our top priority and we appreciate your patience. This has been a huge project, but it's incredible the amount of support and positivity we have gotten from the Bighorn recreating community! Antelope Butte will keep you informed via our website and Facebook page.

5 Day Local School Program

Just this past week John Kirlin, the Executive Director, put his plan into action. Woodland Park Elementary's 5th graders received the first test of the new ski program. Kirlin has been working the past year to implement a ski curriculum into the local Sheridan & Bighorn County schools. The five-day curriculum follows school's Physical Education Guidelines and focuses on getting the children up and moving. The first two days involves learning the equipment and movements indoors. Students then practice outside Wednesday and Thursday on cross-country skis before downhill skiing Friday on the mountain. Due to the curriculum's nature, there are no out-of-pocket costs for the schools or the families, so it makes it incredibly enticing to allow children to try something they never thought of trying before. This directly follows Antelope Butte's Mission to support children & beginners in outdoor recreation. Keep your eyes out for the next program location!
