University of New Orleans
International Students Documentation of Financial Support

All international applicants requesting visa eligibility documents (I-20 for F-1 students or DS-2019 for J-1 students) are required to demonstrate adequate financial resources to cover the cost of education in the United States. Financial documentation is required as part of the application process in order for visa eligibility documents (I-20 for F-1 students or DS-2019 for J-1 students) to the U.S. to be issued. Please see Financial Information for the minimum U.S. dollar amounts required.

Funds may come from any dependable source including scholarships, sponsoring organizations, personal funds or funds from the student’s family. Funding documents should be dated no more than six months previous to application to UNO. Original documents are preferred, but scanned/fax documents will accepted for the initial review process. Original documents or additional information may be required to verify accuracy of financial support documentation. Personal and/or family funds must be submitted on the official letterhead stationery of the bank/financial institution along with a signature or stamp of an administrative official, and must verify that the required amount specified in Financial Information is available for your studies. All letters should be in English and figures stated in U.S. currency (preferred) or home country currency. Please note you will be required to show original financial support documentation when applying for the F-1/J-1 visa at the U.S. Consulate or Embassy.

Financial Information

The estimated minimum costs required to attend UNO full time for one academic year (9 months) include tuition and fees, living expenses, books, and insurance. The most up-to-date amount is posted on the Bursar’s Office under I-20 Amounts at https://www.uno.edu/bursar/tuition-fees.

Please list the name of the academic program requested and the amount required below.

Program:  ________________________________________________________________

Cost:  ____________________________________________________________________
Please note that these costs are estimates and are subject to change without notice. International students must be enrolled full-time each semester. Living expenses include housing, meals, and limited personal expenses and are based on the University’s student financial aid budget calculations. They do not include transportation. Individual students’ actual costs may be higher or lower than those estimated. International students in F and J status must pay a required International Student Fee of $150 each semester. Health insurance coverage is also required and included in these costs.

Please indicate by checking below all sources of financial support (more than one box may be checked).
