

President
Pope John Paul II High School
Royersford, PA

Pope John Paul II High School, a coeducational Roman Catholic high school, is located in central Montgomery County, a growing community in southeastern Pennsylvania. Housed in a modern facility that is 15 years young, the school was born out of a merger of two high schools, Kennedy-Kenrick and St. Pius X, and carries forward the proud traditions of six Philadelphia archdiocesan secondary schools.

The President is the Chief Executive Officer responsible for providing visionary leadership and strategic direction to ensure the school's continued growth and success. The President will emphasize alumni and community engagement, enrollment growth, and development initiatives to support the mission and values of the Roman Catholic faith within the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. The President is appointed by Archbishop Nelson Pérez in collaboration with the Pope John Paul II High School Board and the Office for Catholic Education. The President reports to the Chief Operating Officer of the Office of Catholic Education in matters pertaining to the administration of the school and works in collaboration with the Pope John Paul II High School Board of Directors in accordance with the bylaws of Boards of Specified Jurisdiction in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

Qualified candidates will have a minimum of 10 years of experience in education, business, nonprofit, or other organizational leadership, preferably within a Catholic school setting. The successful candidate will be a practicing Catholic with a strong commitment to the mission and teachings of the Roman Catholic Church. Ideally, the new President will have a proven track record in strategic leadership, alumni relations, community engagement, enrollment management, and fundraising. A Master's degree in Education, Business Administration, or a related field is preferred. Limited regional travel required; must be available to attend events after work hours or on weekends as needed.

Salary Range: $130,000 to $150,000
