

Families from local Catholic high schools are invited to attend the upcoming Financial Aid and Scholarship Evening Programs. Creighton University and EducationQuest will provide the programming. In an effort to provide options and accessibility, we will be hosting the evening programs on three different dates and at three different locations. You may attend the evening program that best fits your schedule. Please visit the website for more information and to register.

Financial Aid and Scholarship Overview Presentation

Wednesday, October 8, 2025

6:30 p.m.

Mercy High School

Monday, October 20, 2025

6:00 p.m.

Creighton Prep

Tuesday, October 28, 2025

6:00 p.m.

Duchesne Academy

Creighton University will provide an overview of the various ways to finance a college education. Topics will include need-based aid and merit-based scholarships, benefits of completing the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid), cost components included in college tuition and fees, how to read a financial aid award letter, and tools and resources to understand and help offset college costs. The information provided will be a broad overview of post-secondary costs and finances and will not be specific to Creighton.

FAFSA Completion Workshop

Monday, October 20, 2025

6:45 p.m. Offered in English and Spanish

Creighton Prep

*Please bring an iPad or laptop with you

On October 20th, EducationQuest will provide an overview of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and need-based financial aid. Following the presentation, families will have the opportunity to complete the FAFSA with the support of EducationQuest and school counselors. The 2026-27 FAFSA will be released on October 1st.

Registration

We kindly ask you to register for the evening program(s) by completing the registration form. We will send reminder emails to those registered as the dates approach. Please note, that you may attend any event without registering.