

Steubenville Itinerary, 2026

Life moves fast. Your days are full, and deep down, you're running on empty. There's a part of you that longs to slow down. To feel again. To remember who you are.

That's where pilgrimage begins.

Not with a passport or plane ticket, but with that subtle ache in your chest that says: "There's more than this. And I need it."

A pilgrimage isn't a vacation. It's not about going somewhere sacred. It's about becoming someone new.

It's about leaving behind the noise of your everyday life to enter a sacred space – where God is already waiting for you!

It's time to be still. To be changed. This pilgrimage is more than a trip. It's a threshold, and you are being invited to cross it.
