

Virtual Open House for Graduate Programs

Tuesday, October 6, 2020 from 6:00—7:30 pm

- Meet with faculty and program leaders
- Hear from current students
- Discover our degree offerings, specialized coursework, and flexible scheduling options
- Learn about admissions requirements, financial aid, and scholarship options
- Discuss application questions with admissions staff

Virtual Information Sessions

Online information sessions are held regularly for all graduate programs.

- October 14 – MA in Applied Economics and Certificates
- October 19 – MBA Programs
- October 21 – MS in IT & Management and Certificates
- October 22 – MS in International Business
- October 22 – MS in Accounting & Taxation Certificate

Receive an application fee waiver ($65) when you attend an open house or information session.

Webinars

Our graduate recruitment team hosts webinars designed to help students interested in a graduate business program learn more about the application process and the program services available at the Bryan School of Business & Economics. Upcoming topics include:

- October 8 – Crafting the Perfect Personal Statement
- October 12 – Mastering Your Graduate School Application
- October 20 – Bryan Prelude: Your Introduction to a Graduate Degree
- October 27 – Build Skills and Boost Your Resume with a Graduate Certificate

Online Classroom Visits

Curious about how online graduate degree programs work? Join us for a virtual classroom tour to explore and compare on-campus and virtual learning opportunities. Attendees will also connect with online course faculty and current students. All of our graduate programs are available online, so find out if this flexible format is right for you!

- October 21 – Online Classroom Visit (Management Class)

Virtual GMAT Prep Courses

Need assistance preparing for the GMAT? Attend one of our virtual GMAT Prep Courses for helpful tips.

- Tuesdays, October 6 through November 3

One-on-One Meetings

Schedule a virtual meeting with a graduate recruiter to discuss your career goals, explore which program is right for you, and receive answers to all of your graduate school questions!

WHY CHOOSE THE BRYAN SCHOOL?

Excellence

The Bryan School is among 1% of business schools in the world with dual accreditation in business and accounting.

Value

Our career-focused and competitively-priced programs deliver an exceptional return on your investment.

Diversity

Our diverse and inclusive campus provides the opportunity to expand learning by engaging with diverse points of view.

Community

Hands-on projects and networking opportunities allows students the opportunity to build business and community connections.