NEW YORK

Why choose AEC?

American English Center is a new language school in New York and Los Angeles. However, it's management team has over 20 years of experience in the language school industry. There are many reasons to study at AEC!

1. American English Center New York and LA is accredited by the Commission on English Program Accreditation (CEA).
2. Strong and experience management team that focuses on quality education with strong emphasis on student services and satisfaction.
3. Experience native English-speaking instructors – All teachers have a degree in English or a related field. Licensed and/or have extra teaching certifications such as Teaching English as a Second Language (TESOL), CELT, and more.
4. Best Location – Both AEC New York and LA are in central areas of their respective cities. AEC New York is located on the high-end area of Madison Avenue. Our school in Los Angeles is in Mid-city Los Angeles.
5. Diverse community – students from all over the world have fun while learning English. Students are given fun team exercises that allows them to interact with one another in English and they have a great time while learning English.
6. Great student support – Students receive free admission process for higher education from school advisors. Students also participate in various school activities and cultural events, where they make many friends and enhance international understandings with one another.

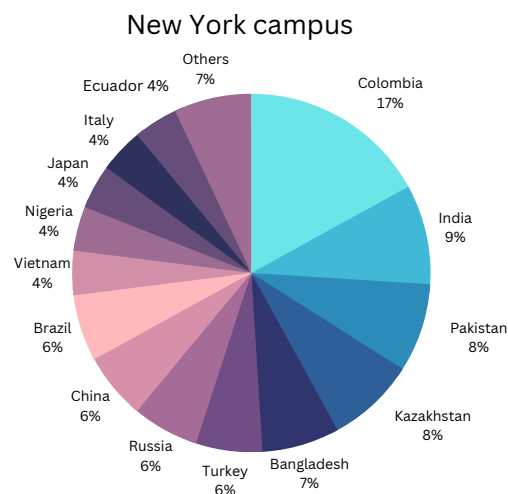

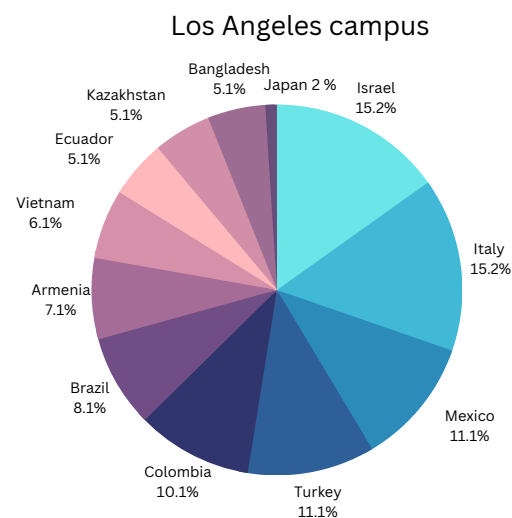

Mission Statement

Our mission is to provide an Intensive English Program (IEP) that trains a culturally diverse student body from all over the world to become fluent in American English. To achieve this mission, the school has identified these objectives:

1. To deliver content-based English language courses designed to help students acquire fluent language skills, be able to think critically in English, to communicate ideas clearly, and demonstrate comprehension competence in English through integrated instruction, tasks and projects.
2. To provide an educational environment that encourages an appreciation of academic language studies coupled with American culture.
3. To uphold our commitment to have a diverse student community while offering policies that hold students accountable to the school's high standards of learning.

English Levels - 6 levels

American English Center ESL Progress Chart

Students at the A1 Level can use very frequently-used daily expressions as well as simple phrases to meet immediate needs. You can ask and answer questions about personal details such as where he/she lives, things he/she has and people he/she knows. You can also interact in a simple way provided the other person talks slowly and clearly and is prepared to cooperate.

Students at the A2 Level can repeat sentences and frequently used expressions related to areas of most immediate relevance (e.g., very basic personal and family information, shopping, local geography, employment). You can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar and routine matters. You can describe in simple terms aspects of his/her background, immediate environment and matters in areas of immediate need.

Students at the B1 level can interpret the main points of clear, familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc. You can apply English to most situations likely to arise while travelling in an area where the language is spoken. You can produce simple connected text on topics which are familiar or of personal interest.

Students at the B2 Level can respond to the main ideas of complex text on both concrete and abstract topics, including technical discussions in your field of specialization. You can interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible without strain for either party.

Students at the C1 Level can analyze a wide range of demanding, longer texts, and recognize implicit meaning. You can express yourself fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions. You can use language flexibly and effectively for social, academic and professional purposes.

Students at the C2 Level can interpret with ease virtually everything heard or read. You can summarize information from different spoken and written sources, reconstructing arguments and accounts in a coherent presentation. You can express yourself spontaneously, very fluently and precisely, differentiating finer shades of meaning even in more complex situations.
