HALL OF FAME AREA FCA 2024 AWARD RECIPIENTS

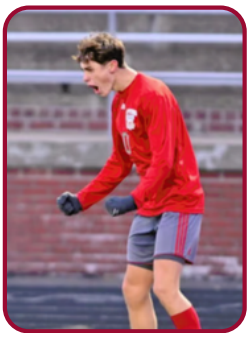

Don Cockroft Male Athlete of the Year - Andrei Dordea - Wooster High School

“Andrei has been a strong leader of FCA for several years and I'm honestly not sure we'd have FCA without his leadership. He's a great athlete who was All Ohio in four events on our swim team. As strong as he is in the pool, he's much stronger in the halls of WHS. I've been at Wooster HS for over ten years and haven't run across a better leader. He has a passion for following Jesus and helping others come to know Him and grow in their faith.”

Don Cockroft Male Athlete of the Year - Joshua Smith - Dover High School

“As a high school student, I have interacted with Josh in the classroom, on the field, and in our FCA huddle. As a student, Josh has maintained high academic marks in honors level and college level courses. In the athletic arena, he has achieved excellence in both soccer and track. Furthermore, Josh has shown great leadership and dedication as the FCA president the last two years. His passion for the Word and connecting with others has drawn him to pursue a ministry degree at Waynesburg University.”

Renee Powell Female Athlete of the Year - Angelina Yates - Smithville High School

“Angelina has modeled what a Christian student athlete is all about consistently for the 6 years I’ve know her. Her character is above reproach. Disciplined in her work ethic and attitude. She has served not just as an FCA leader but also as a leader for our entire student body serving in various roles. She is kind, encouraging, poised and willing to help out in any way possible. Can’t say enough about her overall witness in all aspects of her life and the influence she has on our campus.”

Sue Ramsey Coach of the Year - Greg Howard - Sandy Valley High School

Coach Howard is currently an Intervention Specialist and Head Boys and Girls Cross Country Coach at Sandy Valley Local Schools. Coach Greg Howard was the 2022 IVC Coach of the Year, and he led his teams to district titles and state meet appearances. Greg has dedicated himself to coaching his athletes in all three dimensions physical, mental, and spiritual. He understands that his purpose as a coach is not tied to wins and losses, but rather to using the platform God has given him to impact young lives for eternity.
