Anchor Divine Providence for Your Life

Sons and Daughters of God, as you hold to the tether of your conscious awareness, let the Light stream forth from the Mind of God to penetrate and then transmute even the densest recesses of your mortal consciousness, to be replaced on the instant with the deposit of the Mind of God that your God Presence desires shall bless your life. When the Elohim step forth proclaiming the Edict of The Great I AM, "Let there be Light!" Light Substance obeys and takes on the intended God Quality for Divine Purpose, to be realized as patterns of life lived in the Perfection of God, which eternally flow forth out of Divine Providence, always knowing the end from the beginning.

Many have known that in their Eternal Consciousness, Alpha and Omega hold fast to every such blessed beginning and ending. Now you are coming to know that within the Allness of God are found every Divine Substance, Pattern, Blueprint, which flow forth out of the Presence of The One. These Divine Attributes stream forth, stepped down so that you might appropriate the highest vibration, the purest intent, the Divine Perfection of each Pattern at any time. And if you have the attainment to see the whole of the blueprint and Divine Plan of your life, you would see how it has been exquisitely charted by the Mind of your own God Presence for you, preparing your way, constantly adjusting for any lack of attunement, missteps that you may have engaged in or hesitations to step into the Will of God. So the Christ Presence readjusts your outer affairs to draw you closer into that Divine Pattern of Life held within its own Heart, that is so lovingly nourished and safe-guarded by your I AM Presence.

For yes, blessed hearts, your Mighty I AM Presence guards jealously that which is its own Desiring, its own Thought. And when its very Heart Flame goes forth, do you suppose that the Mind of God ever makes an error in judgment, vacillates, draws back and says, "Well, I will rethink, abandon my original design, and reestablish a new pattern?" Decidedly not. The only adjustments are those made in response to conditions set up by your outer consciousness, your outer desire body, your outer actions, your affairs and associations so that you might stay on track. For once conceived in the Mind of God, the Divine Ideal must come to be, for it is already a Perfected, Completed Cosmic Record and Creation. The Presence has already touched it, held it firmly within its embrace, has already filled in the patterns, the colors, the substances, the dimensions. And as you hold fast to the Purity within your being, you can be assured that you will not, indeed can not, despoil the Alchemy of the Mind of God.

When the Elohim create, They enlist the assistance of other Elohim to complement their own action as required. Oh, it is true that at the level of Elohim They could create in and of Themselves, for They have the Attainment of all of the Twelve Elohim and hold to the Patterns of Reality, just as I hold all within my Mantle. They are all able to draw upon the Seven Rays of God Consciousness and disseminate those Rays into the Elemental Forces of Nature that comprise the Five Pranic Breaths. But in their respective Office, They have their greatest momentum on certain of those Rays. And when manifesting great Patterns conceived in the mind of Alpha and Omega for the entire Earth, They will enlist the assistance of perhaps one or another, or They will call upon my Office, for Me to bring to bear my Momentum upon that manifestation which is to come forth.

Such cooperative efforts relate to you, blessed hearts, for a similar process is constantly going on between your various vehicles and your Mighty I AM Presence, working through the Office of your Holy Christ Presence. That governing Office furnishes the stepped-down Vibration and Charge of Power that you require to manifest more Purity, more God Perfection, more of the God Consciousness of your Mighty I AM Presence. Thus, increment by increment your vehicles of consciousness are stepped up in vibration, are purified and charged sufficiently with the Light of God so that you are able to receive more, create more, manifest more of God where you are.

At present, your primary service may be to stand at your altar and be a receptor for the Light of your Mighty I AM Presence to anchor that Light in the Earth, going out through your four lower bodies to affect the sluggish consciousness of mankind. This is a mighty service rendered by those who are exercising the disciplines of decree, prayer, meditation, and affirmation when in alignment with the Flame of the Heart and their Mighty I AM Presence. In and of themselves, these outer vehicles that you wear are puny in comparison to the Flame upon the Altar of your Heart when it is truly engaged in your decrees. To have the Fullness of the God Ideal revealed through your life requires that you be able to put on the Consciousness of Purity and Perfection as held by the Elohim. As you allow the overshadowing of your Holy Christ Presence to wrap you in its Protective Envelope and Charge of Light, It will conduct the Sacred Fire, the streaming Consciousness, the Momentum of your God Presence, allowing for your Causal Body Presence to engage and ultimately bring forth the good works that you desire so intently upon the Altar of your Heart.

So you see, blessed ones, though you may know intellectually in your mind how to kneel before your altar, how to speak the words, how to put forth your best persona, that in and of itself is not sufficient. For the good works that you desire and require, the Attainments which your Presence has decreed must be anchored in the Earth requires that the God Flame upon the Altar of your Heart expand and expand its Sacred Fire. You must then radiate that Fire and cause its Spiritual Radioactivity to leap from one heart to another, to another, and to another until there is such a roaring momentum of God Awareness that all look to one another in brotherly, sisterly Love and proclaim: "I AM very Good in the Presence of God."

Supreme Goodness is the very Consciousness of God, The Great I AM, displayed and released by the Heart Flame and magnified by the virtuous momentum hard won throughout your many incarnations. This is not the first time you have come to a point on your Path where you elected to know the Truth of your God Identity. In the back of your consciousness, perhaps unaware to your outer actions or realization, you have always desired to know who you truly are! That Identity is the bedrock foundation of your very existence, for the Heart Flame will not be satisfied until it has touched the Flames of Elohim already anchored upon your forehead, until it has touched the Consciousness of your Presence whose Consciousness instantly reports back to the outer consciousness, "I AM here and I AM there!"

So you see, blessed ones, all is prepared for you. Divine Providence has initiated every Good from the very beginning. Increment by increment every form of Life, Light, and Love have eternally poured forth containing all the elements required to bring forth Life in Creation. The Love of God streams forth the necessary Momentums and Powers to coalesce in Divine Order, streaming forth action, intent, creation. Strive to realize that when you elect to engage consciously with Divine Providence you no longer search for who you are but you know your True Identity. You know the fabric of your being. Therefore, focus your attention on Divine Providence, thus keeping you tethered to that streaming Consciousness of the Mind of God. This is not just your ordinary thought and feeling. This is the God Consciousness of Self Luminous Substance, the Divine Patterns that make up the very Fabric of Life!

You will soon be made aware of that Supreme Consciousness, allowing you to distill the Mind of God and Divine Providence into the practical God Direction for your life, the Divine Mission and Plan for your lifestream — and not only for your lifestream but for the collective whole of the entirety of humanity. For mankind must awaken to their Divine Destiny upon the Earth! Glimpses of those Divine Patterns will be shared with you, and you will have the opportunity, increment by increment, to weave in Ribbons of Light and textures of Virtue into the fabric of your life as the Cosmic Dimensions that are held within Akasha will transfer the intonation and vibration that ultimately crystallizes them into manifestation in the physical world.

And as the fullness of your life takes on more and more of the Patterns of the Mighty I AM Presence and those of the Elohim and of The Great I AM, you realize that in the Allness of God you are not separate or apart. Even though there is the unique Individuality of the God Flame upon the Altar of your Heart that proclaims, “I AM. I have Will. I have God Direction,” you realize that you are an undivided part of the whole of the fabric of God and thus you have the Authority to call forth from your Presence that Will, that Pattern, that Light, that God Consciousness and bring it to the fore and establish a new creation that carries the Divine Keynote of your God Presence for Eternity. Yes, blessed hearts, that is how important is the creation that you draw forth from out of the Allness of God through the Mighty I AM Presence in answer to your calls and service as the incarnate

Son or Daughter of God. Those aspects of life that you create, that you bring to the fore as energy in motion, that you establish as thought from the Mind of God, that you fashion with your hands — all of this, blessed hearts, allows for the Patterns of God to unfold and expand throughout The Great I AM, to flourish thereafter for all Eternity.

There is no need to dissolve Perfect Patterns, transmuting them back into their base substance, for they already have Purity. They are already fired in the Divine Light. And should there be some thing that you create that is not quite up to the standards that your God Presence desires, do not fret. Do not wring your hands and say you'll never be worthy. Allow for that partial creation to endure the trials of time. And in some future cycle, you will have the opportunity to continue to refine it. For such is the nature of the innate God Purity that can stream forth from your own Heart Flame, that you can draw upon, purifying those unworthy mistakes just as Elohim draw upon their Purity. There have been many refinements for the Earth since its inception and creation. There is always the refining by God Perfection to bring all into full manifestation that which is the Divine Intent of Providence.

So you see, blessed ones, you cannot give up on yourself or all that you are still called upon to accomplish. Yes, today may not be perfect, but tomorrow will be closer, the day after will be closer yet. And before you know it, you will be standing in the Ascension Temple! You will be face to face across the Ascension Flame from Serapis Bey! And He will say, "It is time. Your Presence has sent forth the Tone, the Vibration, the Fire. Let me support you and entreat you. Let those standing round about hold the balance for you so that you will not look back longingly at your life wishing you had done better, thinking you should have done better, you did not complete this or that cycle. Rather, with the full thrust of your Heart Flame, embrace the Ascension Current!"

That Ascension, blessed ones, is the ultimate experience of Victory that each one of you will one day come to. And in that moment of decision, it is hoped that you will hear the Voice of Ascended and Cosmic Beings reminding you to look up into the Fullness of your Mighty I AM Presence and receive the updraft of its Charge, that you may be One in the Fullness of Eternity as the Ascended Presence abiding in our Ascended Octaves nevermore to reincarnate. And then your hard-earned talents and Virtues will be multiplied with an expansion of the God Consciousness of all that you have mastered that was God Good during your many incarnations so that you can accomplish even greater Service as the Ascended Master. For you mastered time and space. You learned how to discipline these outer vehicles, how to hold the Charge of God Consciousness, how to allow for the Mind of God to be transferred through your conscious awareness and deposited into the spiritual centers of your being to create, to fashion from the Mind of God every nuance, every delicate design of Perfection, every strength that was required to hold fast.

You, blessed hearts, have vehicles of consciousness that are capable of doing far more than you have given them credit. For most times the Sons and Daughters of God choke off the very flow of Light that would otherwise stream forth all that they require, all that they desire. But you, blessed ones, are initiated into greater Masteries for yourself, for you have heard the Word of your Mighty I AM Presence and you have followed that call to this Altar to receive the Charge of the Ascended and Cosmic Beings, to hear our Teaching and Instruction so that you would be reminded of who you truly are and of that Divine Purpose of Life that goes beyond the mundane world of your day-to-day existence. Still that existence, blessed ones, which you have thought was so mundane oftentimes has great purpose — to challenge you, teach you, instruct you, give you the opportunity to extend your Heart Flame into that seemingly mundane striving that you have had to repeat over and over so that ultimately you arrive at that epiphany of the Illumination of the Mind of God, with its attendant Charge of God Consciousness, producing an actual manifestation of Victory that is not unlike that which the Elohim experience when They are creating with the Streaming Light Substance of God.

And when that flow comes together in all of the varied aspects of God Quality, of Pranic Breaths that are played upon by the Christ Consciousness and the Consciousness of The Great I AM streaming forth from Divine Providence focused to a pinpoint concentration of God Identity, patiently and lovingly waiting to receive its Impulse, fine though it may be, highly attenuated in the highest refined vibration — and now at long last your heart is attuned to it! Your Mighty I AM Presence drew it forth so that you would catch its full Charge, make it your own and bring forth God into manifestation!

So you see, blessed hearts, though We work with greater momentums of God Consciousness and Energy, greater magnitudes of Light and the Charge of the Body Consciousness of the Great I AM, the principle is one and the same for you. That is why it is important for you to have a greater understanding of Hierarchy, for it teaches you the hierarchical chain of your own spiritual vehicles culminating in your own body temple. That is why you refer to your body as the Temple of The Presence. Yes, that is also the proper name of our Ascended Master Activity, but you as the Son and Daughter of God desiring to unfurl the Heart Flame are likewise the Temple of your Presence. Each of your vehicles of consciousness are so designed and connected with the Heart of your God Presence so that you would have every opportunity that Elohim have, that I, the Maha Elohim, demonstrate in my Office. So you see, blessed ones, the Solar Devas and their Breaths have a great force of God Power, and the Consciousness of God in its Holy Purpose can indeed move mountains by the Hand of Elohim. You, blessed hearts, within your Mighty I AM Presence are learning how to move the mountains of adversity in your life and clear away by the solar winds your own consciousness to reveal the Purity of Divine Providence for your life.

Let the Light so shine in your life that you begin to work with the Twelve Flames of Elohim upon your crown chakra! Understanding how the Threefold Flame of the Heart must ignite those Flames with its touch as the creative Patterns of Perfection from the Divine Source will remind you at every turn, within every second of your life — sleeping or awake, conscious or unconscious — that you are the Divine. Your Mighty I AM Presence is an Individual Being abiding in the Allness of God. That means that that part of you that knows Itself to be I AM is also an undivided part of the Whole of God. You need not beg and scrape but must make your rapport with your Presence. Then all of Heaven, all of the Octaves of Light, and their limitless opportunities will open wide for you in a great rush of Ascension's Light, sweeping the unreality that you have struggled with for so long, enthroning you in your State of Bliss and Dominion throughout the Allness of God that is the Great Central Sun.

I, Ouranos, commend you to the Divine Providence uniquely conceived as the Pax Providentia for your individual lifestream and the Golden Age that is to come forth for the entire Earth! For we are in support with our momentum to assist you in anchoring your Mighty I AM Presence and all of the Causal Body Momentums of your Attainment to flourish across the land and to expand the Consciousness of God. Let the Light and the Momentum of Elohim hold the balance as you once more enter into the fray for all God's Sons and Daughters so that they, too, might have expanded opportunity to receive the Charge of Light and the transfer of God Power that will open wide the windows of Heaven so that the Fullness of Divine Providence shall engulf the Earth and all thereon manifesting the Golden Age, here and now!
