President's Corner

With great pride DuPage County NAACP is celebrating its 65 th birthday. I am extremely humbled to lead one of the most powerful and influential organizations in the western suburbs. Our branch is an amazing collection of talent. Our branch leadership consist of judges, attorneys, current and former law enforcement professionals, clergymen, educators, financial advisors, healthcare professionals and elected officials just to name a few.

DuPage County NAACP played a pivotal role this year as well as the 2020 elections; hosting several extremely important candidate forums. We were actively engaged in the 2020 and 2021 GOTV, recruiting and training volunteers to register voters, manage phone banking, canvassing key districts and discussing key issues important to the NAACP.

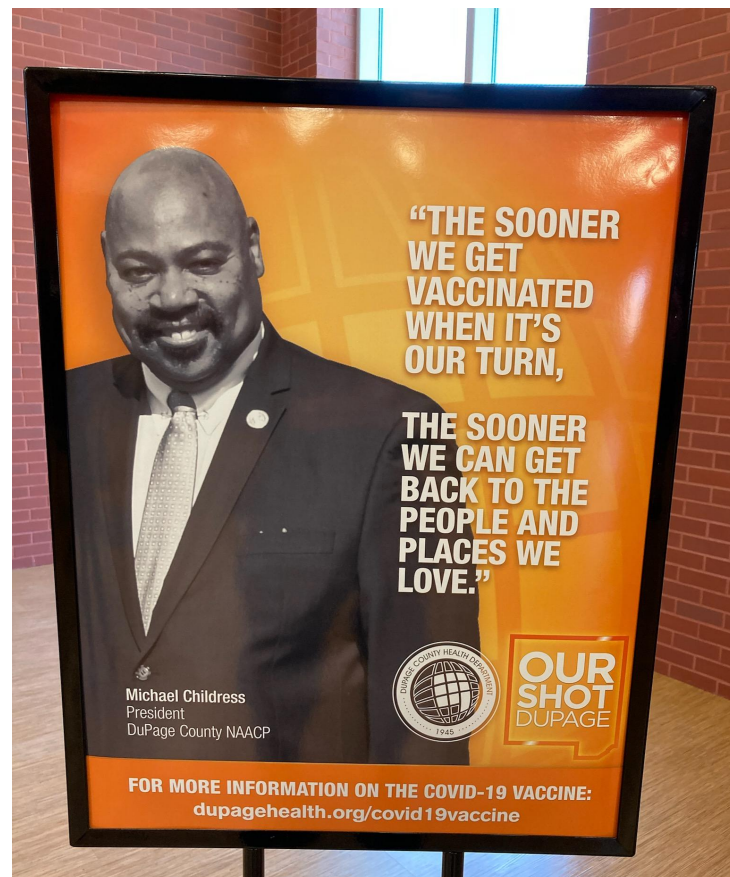

Our membership is one of most diverse and inclusive branches in the United States. Our branch is made up of all races, creeds, colors, faiths and religions in key leadership roles. Members are of all genders and sexual orientations.

The only requirement is that you believe in equal justice under the law. Our branch is currently active in voting rights, police reform, health equity, educational opportunities, criminal justice, financial literacy, environmental justice and social advocacy.

One pillar that our branch has built is a solid relationship with many key community partners. These partnerships include mental health professionals, doctors, nurses, elected officials, boards of health, school districts and superintendents, police chiefs, Greek fraternities and sororities, county board members, faith based organizations and local businesses.

Needless to say, our branch moves at the speed of life. As conditions in the counties change, we must remain agile enough to, not only react to the change, but anticipate it. This is the forward thinking our branch will continue to recruit for the communities we serve.

As president, I see myself as your soldier looking for war. If you see yourself as a soldier, please join us in this war as we fight for our collective civil rights.

Health Committee

The Health Committee collaborated with the Fox Valley Community Faith Network with its program "40 days of Prayer, Fasting and Renewal". The program provided a plant-based guide, daily prayer calls, and fitness Saturday's for churchgoers in the Fox Valley Area.

Between February 17, 2021 and April 3rd, licensed Zumba Fitness Instructor and Health Committee member, Temeka Booker provided Virtual Zumba Dance classes to connect the community through fitness after the Pandemic. ## Youth Council

The Youth Council hosted a career fair on April 25th. In attendance were professionals who exposed our youth to fields in the arts, STEM, entrepreneurship, consultancy, military, and first responders.

Alan Johnson, a web developer, imparted the wisdom that “you do not have to have everything planned out from day one.”

Jessica Guider, a clinical researcher, suggested taking time to identify what you want to do in your career. In her own life, taking on temporary work allowed her to dabble into various fields that interested her until she landed into a fitting role.

Ray Perry, a software engineer, diligently balances his personal goals along with a demanding job. He believes that if you value something, there will always be time for it.

The event was a success and allowed the youth to gain insight on different careers.
Committee Chair: Stephanie James

Congratulations Anisha Kolambe!

In honor of National Poetry Month and Earth Day, the Youth Communications Committee hosted a poetry contest to address the concept of environmental justice. Below is the winning piece!

United we stand, Divided we fall
Heed my words, and answer my call For years I've stood, passing the test of time. Now I watch, as I am ignored for a dime.

My air and water, once so pure,
Ravaged by pollution; still, I must endure.

When my children and resources are destroyed without shame.
I am burning, melting, chilling -- while you seek something else to blame.

Make no mistake, I will survive
With or without you, nature will ultimately thrive.

Even as it seems that humanity has lost its sight. It's not too late. Stop and make it right.
