

NE RPAC Trustee Responsibilities

The Nebraska REALTORS® RPAC Trustees are vital to the success of NE RPAC. The Trustees, Fundraisers, and the NRA REALTOR® Party Team work together to accomplish the goals and objectives of NE RPAC. A strategic approach to accomplishing them is initiated through an annual REALTOR® Party orientation & training at Political Action Days.

Below you will find the expectations of all NE-RPAC Trustees.

- Invest in NE RPAC at a Major Investor level and encourage all members to invest.
- With fellow trustees and under the leadership of the chair, oversee all NE RPAC operations and financial disbursements.
- Promote the NE RPAC mission, strategic plan, and goals within the association membership.
- Attend RPAC and Trustees orientation training at Political Action Days
- Attend all state Governmental Affairs meeting, NE RPAC, and Major Investor events. Trustees who are absent from three consecutive NE-RPAC meetings shall be automatically removed and their seat declared vacant. (NE-RPAC Trustee meetings are held in person during Political Action Days, State Convention and Fall Meetings. All other meetings, unless agreed upon by the trustees ahead of time, will occur via a virtual platform)
- Attend and as many state and local NE RPAC events and fundraisers as possible.
- Know their elected representative at all levels of government & be knowledgeable about legislative issues.
- Know the issues and be able to educate others about what's at stake.
- Participate in the state association's candidate interview process, as needed by the REALTOR® Champion Workgroup (RCW).
- Consider Realtor Champion Workgroup and Lobbyist recommendations and make decisions on statewide NE RPAC candidate investments.
- Work with state and local Governmental Affairs Committees to help promote and advocate the REALTOR® Party message.
- Assist local boards within your region with local fundraising efforts.
- Educate, educate, educate.
