Gala Luncheon

HONORING SUSAN LEFF

Sunday, August 25, 2019
Noon

Temple Sinai
500 Swift Street
South Burlington

Couvert: $36 per person

Susan Leff will be honored for her extraordinary work with the Jewish Community throughout Vermont, with the University of Vermont Hillel and as a devoted Hadassah supporter. Susan works to integrate all the Jewish organizations in the state of Vermont and is a never ending resource for those in leadership.

With Avram Patt, story teller, musician, legislator

Avram's family were activists and leaders of the Jewish Labor Bund in Poland, its youth organization SKIF, and in Yiddish cultural organizations. They continued their involvement and leadership in Jewish labor and cultural organizations in the U.S. The son of refugees, Avram's first language was Yiddish. After moving from the Bronx to Vermont in 1970, Avram was first involved in political theater and created plays based on Yiddish stories. He then oversaw statewide community-based anti-poverty programs, then managed an electric cooperative that pioneered in energy efficiency and renewable energy. He has held elected office, as chair of a small town selectboard and presently as a member of the Vermont House. Avram continues his involvement in environmental and social justice causes, and sings and drums in the Nisht Geferlakh Klezmer Band. He and his wife, Amy Darley, live in Worcester.
