

In early 1968, about 2000 people, including Rabbi Maurice Eisendrath (with Torah scroll), joined Reverend Martin Luther King Jr., Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel and religious leaders of different faiths, as they marched to the tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington National Cemetery in protest of the Vietnam War.

GET ON THE ROAD...

And Change the World!

Join us for a weekend of learning about the struggles of African Americans to gain equality in the 1950s & 60s, as well as discover how Jews were involved in the Civil Rights Movement.

Participants will gain a greater understanding of why Jews, as a people who have known oppression, must care and act when others are oppressed.

February 7-10, 2019 Open to all students in Grades 9-12 Cost: $500*

The journey will take us to Atlanta, Montgomery, Selma and Birmingham. including visits to the site where Leo Frank was lynched, the Rosa Parks Museum, the Martin Luther King Center/Auburn Avenue district, Ebenezer Church, the Edmund Pettus Bridge, the Equal Justice Initiative, Freedom Park, Birmingham Civil Rights Institute and the Names Project -AIDS Quilt.
