

Nonviolent Crisis Intervention Training

SFNS is pleased to offer Nonviolent Crisis Intervention Training (NVCIT) to our seven member First Nations by request. Early in 2024-2025 Michaela Nahmabin-Hiltz, Implementation Coordinator for the LDCC First Nation Health Policy has received train the trainer certification by the Crisis Prevention Institute (CPI).

What's Included:

- NVCIT facilitation
- Facilitator travel to your First Nation/local venue
- Flyer/marketing materials to share with your participants

What's Not Included:

- Registration of Participants
- Training Venue Rental
- Hospitality (i.e. snacks, refreshments, lunch)
- Training Manuals/ Online seats.

The current cost per training manual/online seat is as follows:

- Classroom NVCIT Training Manual – $39.49
- Classroom NVCIT Mental Health Training Manual – $39.49
- Classroom VI (Verbal Intervention) Training Manual – $39.49
- Online NVCIT Seat and Training Manual – $58.99
- Online NVCIT Mental Health Seat and Training Manual – $66.99
- Online VI Seat and Training Manual – $58.99
- Online VI Mental Health Seat and Training Manual – $66.99

Training Details

Key Topics:

- Mod. 1 - Understanding Behavior & its Risk
- Mod. 2 - The CPI Crisis Development Model
- Mod. 3 - Integrated Experience
- Mod. 4 - Supportive Communication Skills
- Mod. 5 - Responding to Defensive Behaviors
- Mod. 6 - Safety Interventions
- Mod. 7 - Post-Crisis
- Safety Interventions: Disengagement Skills
- Safety Interventions: Holding Skills.
- Nonviolent Crisis Intervention Mental Health Considerations

What type of training would your organization prefer:

Classroom Setting

Option 1: Verbal Intervention training only - 1 day, 6.5 hours of training total. Modules 1-7 only.

Option 2: Nonviolent crisis intervention training - 2 days, 10.5 hours of training total. Includes modules 1-7 & both safety intervention modules.

Option 3: Nonviolent Crisis Intervention Mental Health Training - 2 days, 10.5 hours of training total. Includes modules 1-7, mental health content, & both safety intervention modules.

Blended - Note: A pre-in-class online course is required before the in-class portion, & the estimated time to complete it is 3 hours.

Option 4: Verbal Intervention training only - 3.5 hours of classroom training. Modules 1-7 only.

Option 5: Nonviolent crisis intervention training - 7.5 hours of classroom training. Includes modules 1-7 & both safety intervention modules.

Option 6: Nonviolent Crisis Intervention Mental Health Training - 7.5 hours of classroom training. Includes modules 1-7, mental health content, & both safety intervention modules.

Non-violent Crisis Intervention Training Application Form

Southern First Nations
Secretariat

Please complete the information below so that SFNS can better understand your needs and help us facilitate the process of organizing training.

Chosen Training Course Option: _____

First Nation Contact Information

First Nation: _____

Name of Primary Contact: _____

Position of Primary Contact: _____

Phone Number: _____

Email Address: _____

Preferred Training Date(s):

Day 1: _____

Day 2 (if applicable): _____

Training Venue

Full address: _____

Is there adequate space in the venue for participants to practice disengagement/holding skills?

Yes

No

Is there access to audio/visual equipment?

Yes

No

Number of Participants

Number of participants (maximum of 15): _____

Policies and procedures

Do you have any workplace policies and/or procedures relevant to the course? (e.g. reporting forms for crisis situations, safety plans for patients/clients, debriefing techniques for after-crisis situations, etc.)?

Please list below if applicable:

---

---

---

SFNS Internal Use Only

Confirmed training date:

Confirmed training location:

Number of confirmed participants:

Notes/Comments:

---

---

---

Date form received:

Date training completed:

of surveys completes:

Date surveys sent: