

Ann Cole is excited to introduce a new class combining her two passions: yoga & horses. Kick Spring off by getting your body, mind and spirit ready for a better connection with yourself and a horse.

5 week session | Wednesdays | May 15th-June 12th | 9am-11am | $300

Bring your own horse or use one of ours. Classes will be at our start of the art facility. These 2 hours will be broken up into 45 minutes of yoga stretching, breathing and connecting with your horse or ours. The following 75 minutes we will be riding, grooming & enjoying the energy of the horses.

Interested in attending, but you have a scheduling conflict? Let us know what would work for you to help us plan for future sessions!

To register, fill out the form below & return to the address below along with a $75 deposit. Make checks payable to Ann Cole Training Center.
