

THE AMERICAN FEDERATION PUERI CANTORES

Bringing together youth choirs throughout America to sing the Peace of God

NCCF Fund Established for Congo Federation of Pueri Cantores Help support our brothers and sisters in the Congo!

In the heart of a region long scarred by conflict, music is bringing hope.

These powerful photos from the Archdiocese of Bukavu in the Democratic Republic of Congo capture more than moments of music and cooking lessons — they reveal how beauty, order, and faith can lift young hearts toward a fuller and more hopeful life.

Meet the young students of Pueri Cantores in Bukavu, whose voices and faith are rising above the hardships of their world through the universal language of music and art.

Pueri Cantores of the Resurrection in the Archdiocese of Bukavu is one of the 32 Federations within the International Federation of Pueri Cantores. They have launched a crucial humanitarian project: "Art of Life: Music, Sewing, and Cooking for the Service of the Future: How can one sing when one is hungry and traumatized by the horrors of war?"

The initiative seeks to transform the lives of children and youth—many of whom carry the deep wounds of war—by providing them with comprehensive training in music, sewing, and cooking. Through the School of Music and Arts of the Little Singers of the Resurrection of the Archdiocese of Bukavu, these young artists will find a path to healing while acquiring essential practical skills for their future.

The American Federation of Pueri Cantores has established a fund at the National Catholic Community Foundation (NCCF) to support these urgent humanitarian efforts in the Congo.

Please consider making a contribution to the "Pueri Cantores International Fund" through NCCF to aid the vital work of our brothers and sisters in the Congo Federation.

Every gift, large or small, helps open the door to a better future for these suffering young people.
