

Morning Worship Service

Sixteenth Sunday after Pentecost

September 25, 2022

9:00 & 11:00 A.M.

The purpose of this sermon will be to emphasize that our sins of omission are just as deadly as the sins we intentionally commit.

CHIMING OF THE HOUR

WELCOME, CONCERNS AND CELEBRATIONS OF THE CHURCH

PRELUDE Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow Fred Bock

INTROIT Softly and Tenderly arr. Timothy Johnson

CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: We gather as the people of God, filled with reverence and with a special kind of joy, because People: Our God reigns through love and hope.

Leader: In our coming together, there is a Spirit that connects us and bonds us to one another in fellowship, for People: Our God reigns through love.

Leader: There is no better thing we can do with ourselves and our time than to worship with a sure confidence that People: Our God reigns.

Leader: So here we are, the people of a faith-community, who join in service, song, and prayer, to worship

People: Our God.

HYMN OF PRAISE Our Cities Cry to You, O God
(See insert)

PRAYER OF APPROACH AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Leader: Everlasting God, in whom we live and move and have our being: You have made us for Yourself, so that our hearts are restless until they rest in You. Give us purity of heart and strength of purpose that no selfish passion may hinder us from knowing Your will, no weakness keep us from doing it; that in Your light we may see clearly, and in Your service find perfect freedom; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who taught his disciples this prayer we now join together in praying...

Unison: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

CALL TO CONFESSION

Leader: Despite our best efforts, we find ourselves succumbing to temptations, and our sin is ever before us. Still, God loves us and offers us forgiveness and absolution of our sin if we truly repent. So let us come before God with penitent and contrite hearts, confess our sin and receive God's forgiveness. Let us pray.

UNISON PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, we have sinned against You and against our neighbors, in thought and word and deed, in the evil we have done and in the good we have not done, through ignorance, through weakness, through our own deliberate fault. Forgive them all, O God, our sins of commission and our sins of omission. We are truly sorry and repent of all our sins. For the sake of Your Son, Jesus Christ, who died for us, forgive us all that is past; and grant that we may serve You in newness of life to the glory of Your name. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Leader: The Psalmist reminds us, "The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. He does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities. For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him, as far as the east is from the west, so far does he remove our transgressions from us." Amen.

*RESPONSE – No. 579

“Gloria Patri”

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen.

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Luke 16:14-15a, 19-31
(Tuesday’s Bible Study Scripture: Luke 17:5-10)

Leader: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

UNISON PROFESSION OF FAITH

This is the good news which we have received, in which we stand, and by which we are saved, if we hold it fast: that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day, and that he appeared first to the women, then to Peter, and to the Twelve, and then to many faithful witnesses. We believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God. Jesus Christ is the first and the last, the beginning and the end; he is our Lord and our God. Amen. (Based on: I Cor. 15:1-6; Mark 16:1-9; Matt. 16:16; Rev. 22:13; John 20:28)

As a courtesy to those around you, please turn off or silence cell phones and personal communication devices.

Large print bulletins and hymnals are available from the ushers. You may also view the bulletin by visiting our website at www.firstprestupelo.org. See the “Bulletin” link at the top of the homepage.

The Flowers are placed in the sanctuary today to the glory of God and in memory of Presly Thornton Wallace, Jr. by Robin and Cindy Faucette.

Nursery care is available for newborns through four-year-olds. Please ask an usher for directions to the nursery if you are visiting for the first time.

After the 11:00 Children’s Sermon, preschoolers and kindergarteners are invited to attend “Wee Kirk.” This is a time of fun childcare with age appropriate songs and games. However, all children are welcome in worship! If you excuse yourself and your child, you can hear the service over speakers in McFadden Hall (directly behind the Sanctuary).

Ritual of Friendship—Members and Visitors: Please sign the black attendance register every Sunday and pass it down your pew. Please read the names, greet one another, and meet new members and visitors.

We care about you as we care about each other. If you would like to submit a prayer request, you may use the blue cards in the pews or in McFadden Hall, and our pastoral staff and prayer partners will pray for you.

The service is live streamed and available for viewing on YouTube.com by those unable to be with us this morning. Search firstprestupelo. We also invite you to visit our website at www.firstprestupelo.org.

Make Me a Channel of Your Peace
arr. Mark Barnard
Text, St Francis of Assisi

Make me a channel of your peace;
where there is hatred, let me bring Your love,
Where there is injury, Your pardon, Lord,
and where there's doubt, true faith in You.

Make me a channel of Your peace;
where there's despair in life let me bring hope,
Where there is darkness only light,
and where there's sadness, ever joy.

O Master, grant that I may never seek so much to be consoled as to console,
To be understood as to understand,
to be loved, as to love with all my soul, Lord.

Make me a channel of Your peace,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
In giving of ourselves that we receive,
and in dying that we're born to eternal life.
