

Morning Worship Service

Second Sunday after Epiphany

January 16, 2022

9:00 & 11:00 A.M.

The night is long, O Lord. But the morning breaks upon us, and it is the dawn of your kingdom. We praise you, God. We shout for joy, we leap in delight, we shout again, 'Hurrah!' O God, righteousness abounds in your light, and we prosper by your salvation.

*HYMN OF PRAISE NO. 356 Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing

CALL TO CONFESSION

Leader: We cannot claim ignorance of our sins, for we know how we have not lived as God's people. But God refuses to forsake us, waiting to forgive us and call us as God's children. Please join me as we pray, saying,

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison)

God of all wonder, you are a God of abundance. The psalmist tells us that all people are welcome to feast on the abundance of your house and drink from the river of your delights. You delight in us. In Jesus Christ, you came among common people and delighted them with your abundance once again. You turned gallons of ordinary water into wine, so that the people could celebrate the wedding feast. You take what we have and turn it into more than enough for all.

And yet, God, though we live in your abundance and there is enough for all your people, we confess that throughout your world, people starve by the thousands every day, while other people, including us, feast every day. Throughout this community, people long for someone to delight in them, and they have never been told that someone already does. For those times when we fail to share your abundance, forgive us. For those times when we fail to share the good news of your love and delight with others, forgive us. For Christ's sake we pray, (Pause for reflection and meditation) Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Leader: At this very moment, God is building a new relationship with us. God names us a delight and showers us with pardon and peace. We are a forgiven people.

People: Thanks be to God whose love extends to the heavens, whose mercies are without end.

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (Unison)

The Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord: Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

UPCOMING EVENTS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

FPC's Interim Search Committee has been meeting and is currently reviewing several candidates for the position of interim pastor. We appreciate your continued prayers as we move through this process together.—
Interim Search Committee Chairman, Kirk Biddle

From the Worship Committee: Out of a concern for the safety of our congregation, and after consultation with other church leaders, we made the decision to cancel in-person worship services today and go to a "virtual platform only" for both services. We are very concerned about transmission of coronavirus and want to minimize your risk of exposure to this highly contagious virus. Your safety is our primary concern, and we feel that this action is in the best interest of all. We will have further discussion regarding worship at the Session meeting on Monday, January 17, and we will keep you updated via congregational emails. Please stay safe. -
Virginia Toliver, Worship Chair

An Update Regarding the Church Office: There are multiple employee family Covid cases in the church office, and we have just learned of one employee's positive covid diagnosis. If you have been in the office this week or worked around any church employee(s), you need to know this for your personal safety, and you should respond to testing accordingly. If there are further updates on this, we will be sure to contact you. Thank you for your concern and prayers as we go forward.

Friends' Lunch will not meet Monday, January 17.

Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing 356

Robert Robinson, c. 1758

1. Come, Thou Fount of every blessing,
Tune my heart to sing Thy grace;
Streams of mercy, never ceasing,
Call for songs of loudest praise.
Teach me some melodious sonnet,
Sung by flaming tongues above;
Praise the mount! I'm fixed upon it,
Mount of God's unchanging love!

2. Here I raise my Ebenezer,
Hither by Thy help I'm come;
And I hope, by Thy good pleasure,
Safely to arrive at home.

Jesus sought me when a stranger,
Wandering from the fold of God;
He, to rescue me from danger,
Interposed His precious blood.

3. O to grace how great a debtor
Daily I'm constrained to be!
Let that grace now, like a fetter,
Bind my wandering heart to Thee:
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it,
Prone to leave the God I love;
Here's my heart, O take and seal it,
Seal it for Thy courts above.

Tune: NETTLETON, opposite.
