

Morning Worship Service

Reformation Sunday

October 31, 2021

9:00 & 11:00 A.M.

Because we come together as Christians for a variety of reasons, today's Gospel confronts us with a challenge and an affirmation that opens the way for us to know the Kingdom of God.

CALL TO WORSHIP (Based on Hebrews 12:1-2, NRSV)

Leader: Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely,
and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us,
looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith. Amen.

REMEMBERING THE SAINTS

Judy Armentrout	Bert Hershfelt	Bert Miller
Bernice Baker	Bobbie King	Mary Claire Moncrief
Jerry Burkett	Linda Lehman	Allan Smith
Jackie Hagewood	Mary Evelyn Maxwell	Denise Williford

PRAYER OF APPROACH AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Leader: Gather us together this Reformation Sunday, O God, that we may celebrate the witness
of our forefathers and foremothers
and the courage that gave birth to the Reformation.
Teach us how to honor the saints of God in ages past
as well as in our present days.
May the conviction of your grace written on their hearts
be one that forms our own faith.
Inspire us in the continuing reformation of the church
and be present to us in word and sacrament.
We pray in the name of the One who taught us to pray, saying...

Unison: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

CALL TO CONFESSION

Leader: Let us put aside our good works and remember that we do sin and fall short of the glory of God.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Leader: When we want to be a church ever-reforming,
yet cling to comfortable ways:

People: Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on us!

Leader: When we want to honor your "still speaking voice,"
but are fearful of insights which challenge old assumptions:

People: Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on us!

Leader: When we want to live into Jesus' dream of oneness,
but fail to listen to voices of difference:

People: Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on us!
(Pause for reflection and self-examination) Amen.

WORDS OF FORGIVENESS

Leader: Take heart, get up; Jesus is calling to us!
We trust in the one who has guided the church for two millennia.

Through Christ, God forgives us our failings and continues to call us into a community of mutual love and forgiveness.

Let us celebrate this mercy of God
by greeting each other with a sign of Christ's peace.

*RESPONSE – No. 579

"Gloria Patri"

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (Unison)

from A Declaration of Faith

The church's story with God did not end with the latest events recorded in Scripture. Across the centuries, the company of believers has continued its pilgrimage with the Lord of history. It is a record of faith and faithlessness, glory and shame. We confess we are heirs of this whole story. We are charged to remember our past to be warned and encouraged by it, but not to live it again. Now is the time of our testing as God's story with the church moves forward through us. We are called to live now as God's servants in the service of people everywhere. Amen.

- Before the service, speak to God.
- During the service, let God speak to you.
- After the service, speak to one another.

WELCOME TO FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Are you looking for a church home? If so, please speak to our minister following worship.

As a courtesy to those around you, kindly turn off or silence cell phones and personal communication devices.

Today's Affirmation of Faith is taken from "A Declaration of Faith," which was written in the 1970s in a poetic style and emphasizes that God is compassionate and ineffable. Professor Shirley Guthrie, who taught at Columbia Theological Seminary for forty years, was a coauthor. Unlike some of the more ancient confessions of faith, this affirmation was intentionally written in a form to be easily used in worship.

The Flowers are placed in the sanctuary today to the glory of God and in memory of Margaret and Tom Beaudrot, Betty Black, and Roberta and John Burress.

Nursery care is available for newborns through four-year-olds. Please ask an usher for directions to the nursery if you are visiting for the first time.

After the children's sermon, preschoolers and kindergarteners are invited to attend "Wee Kirk." This is a time of fun childcare with age appropriate songs and games. However, all children are welcome in worship! If you excuse yourself and your child, you can hear the service over speakers in McFadden Hall (directly behind the Sanctuary).

Both the 9:00 and 11:00 A.M. services are live streamed and available for viewing on YouTube.com by those unable to be with us this morning. Search firstprestupelo. We also invite you to visit our website at www.firstprestupelo.org.

For All the Saints

Hymn No. 526

For all the saints, who from their labors rest,
Who Thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy Name, O Jesus, be forever blessed.
Alleluia, Alleluia!

Thou wast their Rock, their Fortress and their Might;
Thou, Lord, their Captain in the well fought fight;
Thou, in the darkness drear, their one true Light.
Alleluia, Alleluia!

O may Thy soldiers, faithful, true and bold,
Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
And win with them the victor's crown of gold.
Alleluia, Alleluia!

O blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one in Thee, for all are Thine.
Alleluia, Alleluia!

And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph song,
And hearts are brave, again, and arms are strong.
Alleluia, Alleluia!

From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son and Holy Ghost:
Alleluia, Alleluia!

Meet Future Homeowner, Lisa Richey

Lisa Richey is the proud mother of 2 daughters and 1 granddaughter. Daughter Shari, is an LPN at Cedars and also studying to be a Registered Nurse. Her daughter, Jasmine, is a 1st year medical school student at the University of Mississippi Medical Center in Jackson. Her granddaughter, Gabby, is a 6th grader at Guntown Middle School.

Lisa has been with the Hardee's Restaurant Company for nearly 19 years and is the Assistant Manager at the Verona location, working the 4am-3pm shift. She and her family currently live with her mother. The FaithBuild 2021 build will be home to Lisa, Shari and Gabby.

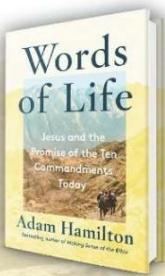

A friend told Lisa about NEMS Habitat for Humanity's homeownership program and after applying twice, she was finally accepted. Lisa diligently participated in financial education courses, homeownership workshops, and completed 200 sweat equity hours by helping to build homes for other homeowners in the program. She is so excited to finally see the preparation work being done on her property and to own a home of her very own at an affordable mortgage.

To her FaithBuild 2021 sponsors and volunteers, Lisa says "This home will be a true blessing. Thank you for making this commitment to my family. I can't wait for that first night in my very own home and the peaceful sleep I'll have!"

New Wednesday Night Study!

6:00 PM
Fellowship Hall

Unpack the Ten Commandments
for today!

What if the Ten Commandments were not just a set of ancient rules, but a guide to experiencing the good life today? Nearly everyone has heard of the Ten Commandments. These ten ancient "words" were given to us by a loving God who longed to set safe boundaries, create order out of chaos, help communities live peacefully, and protect us—often from ourselves. In Words of Life, best-selling author Adam Hamilton brings modern eyes to the most important set of ethics in history. He considers the commandments in their historical context, considering the meaning of each commandment in Hebrew, unpacking how Jesus reinterpreted them, and showing how every "thou shalt not" was intended to point to a life-giving "thou shalt." He also explores how the latest research in science and psychology illuminates these commandments, rightly understood, as a way of ordering one's life beautifully in the present day. In a culture marked by workaholicism, materialism, and social media-driven envy, God has given us a time-tested path that leads to gratitude, confidence, and peace.

JOIN US WEDNESDAY NIGHT at 6:00 P.M. in the Fellowship Hall, as we begin this new study for adults. No book is necessary, as this is a series of video lessons. If you wish to purchase a book for the study, they are available at Reed's Guntree Bookstore, Amazon or Barnes & Noble.
