

Morning Worship Service

Fourteenth Sunday after Pentecost

September 11, 2022

9:00 & 11:00 A.M.

We come today asking God to open our eyes to the possibilities all around us, to the people we have overlooked, to the population on the margins.

CHIMING OF THE HOUR

WELCOME, CONCERNS AND CELEBRATIONS OF THE CHURCH

PRELUDE This is My Father's World Diane Bish

INTROIT Softly and Tenderly arr. Timothy Johnson

CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: We come with thanksgiving to worship God.

People: We come knowing that all that we have, all that we give, all that we will be are gifts of God.

Leader: We come with humility to worship God.

People: We come offering who we are, knowing that we need God's Spirit to be what we ought to be.

Leader: We come with joy and praise to worship God.

People: We come with song and gratitude because ours is a great God, giving and loving. Thanks be to God our Creator, our Redeemer, the Sustainer of our lives.

Leader: Ask us what great thing we know, and we declare the glory of our Lord.

People: Ours is a great God who has created the world and all who dwell therein.

Leader: Ours is a loving God who came in the man Jesus to redeem us and set us free.

People: Ours is an ever-present God who empowers us through the Holy Spirit to declare God's love and redemption to all the world.

Leader: Let us come to this holy time to declare God's greatness, to worship and give thanks. Come, let us praise the Lord.

People: The Lord's name be praised!

HYMN OF PRAISE NO. 426 Lord, Speak to Me, That I May Speak

PRAYER OF APPROACH AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Leader: We think about your children, Lord, and we are filled to overflowing with awareness of your love. We know your love has no limits, knows no bounds, and is offered without precondition. Your capacity to love exceeds our capacity to imagine. So we know that there are people whose paths we have crossed that are loved by you, and unnoticed by us. Help us to see them, Lord. Help us to see them, not as people to shun, but as people to love. Help us to see them, not as people to fear, but as people with whom we can share. Help us to see them, not as people to teach, but as people from whom we can learn. Help us to see them, not as people without hope, but as people for whom you are looking. Help us to learn about love by sharing your love with them. Help us to walk with them, and help us all to learn to dance together, filled with joy through our Lord Jesus Christ who taught us all to pray, saying,

Unison: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

CALL TO CONFESSION

Leader: Trusting in God's hopes for us, let us come before God with contrite hearts, asking for reconciliation and seeking peace. Let us pray together our prayer of confession.

UNISON PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Lord, we confess to being lost. Especially, we confess that we have gone our own way on purpose, and refused to admit we needed your direction. Lord, we admit we liked our way more than your way. That's why we traveled it so far. But Lord, we admit now, out loud, that we got to a point where we knew we were in deep trouble. O Lord, forgive us our arrogance, our stubbornness, our willfulness. Rescue us from the bad we have done. Teach us how to follow you. Bind us with your love, so that we will want to follow close to your ways. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Leader: Friends in Christ, our Lord Jesus stands ready to forgive all we do or leave undone--anything that grieves us or God. God wants to encourage the good we do. By the power of the Holy Spirit, God plants in us not only faith, but also hope and love. Let us be alive in hope and fervent love, that our actions would bear witness to the One who works in our midst--forgiving and strengthening. May it be so.

*RESPONSE – No. 579

“Gloria Patri”

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen.

UNISON PROFESSION OF FAITH

We believe that what God says to us and does for us centers in Jesus Christ our living Lord as he is remembered, known, and expected. In Christ, God’s Word of acceptance takes flesh: by grace through faith we are set right with God, adopted as children of God, not because of anything we have done, but because of what Christ has done. In Christ, God’s Word of demand is lived out: to love God and neighbor as he did is what God requires of us. The Spirit adds no different Word from God, but leads us deeper into the truth of God uttered in Jesus Christ.

HYMN OF AFFIRMATION NO. 298

There’s a Wideness in God’s Mercy

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

PRESENTATION OF TITHES AND OFFERING

What an honor and privilege it is to come before God and offer to Him our various gifts and offerings. As we do so, let us give with a generous and cheerful heart.

OFFERTORY

Joyful, Joyful We Adore Thee

Paul Manz

*DOXOLOGY NO. 592

*Praise God from whom all blessings flow; Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.*

*UNISON PRAYER OF DEDICATION

O God, you desire our love, not hollow worship. We seek to draw nearer to you, not to impress with ceremony. We present these gifts as a demonstration of our desire to love you more fully. We ask that through these gifts we may participate in that great work you have placed before us as your people. Accept our gifts, and us, that Christ's ministry may lack for nothing and his love be made known to a world, which longs for a savior. Amen.

WELCOME TO FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Are you looking for a church home? If so, please speak to our minister following worship.

As a courtesy to those around you, please turn off or silence cell phones and personal communication devices.

Large print bulletins and hymnals are available from the ushers. You may also view the bulletin by visiting our website at www.firstprestupelo.org. See the "Bulletin" link at the top of the homepage.

The Flowers are placed in the sanctuary today to the glory of God and in memory of Mr. and Mrs. John Erskine Bishop by Chauncey and Ann Godwin.

Nursery care is available for newborns through four-year-olds. Please ask an usher for directions to the nursery if you are visiting for the first time.

After the 11:00 Children's Sermon, preschoolers and kindergarteners are invited to attend "Wee Kirk." This is a time of fun childcare with age appropriate songs and games. However, all children are welcome in worship! If you excuse yourself and your child, you can hear the service over speakers in McFadden Hall (directly behind the Sanctuary).

Ritual of Friendship—Members and Visitors: Please sign the black attendance register every Sunday and pass it down your pew. Please read the names, greet one another, and meet new members and visitors.

We care about you as we care about each other. If you would like to submit a prayer request, you may use the blue cards in the pews or in McFadden Hall, and our pastoral staff and prayer partners will pray for you.

The service is live streamed and available for viewing on YouTube.com by those unable to be with us this morning. Search firstprestupelo. We also invite you to visit our website at www.firstprestupelo.org.

Food & Medicines for CUBA

A group from Mission Outreach plans to go to Cuba in late October to check on clean water systems previously installed. The economy in Cuba is very depressed.

- Food and medications are in very short supply, expensive, and in many cases unavailable. A recent fire at the oil storage facility has worsened gasoline shortages and increased electrical blackouts.
- Our group wants to take with us over counter medications, such as Tylenol, aspirin, cold medications, and anti-inflammatories such as ibuprofen.
- Vitamins of all sorts--for kids, adults, seniors, and prenatal vitamins are needed.
- Insect repellants as well as the mosquito bracelets are needed. Dengue fever has been prevalent in Cuba and is spread by mosquitos.
- Food items such as powdered milk, dried beans, instant soup or vegetables, and dried fruit are needed.

Our partners in Cuba, with whom we have worked for 8 years, can distribute these items to those in need.

The situation is such that we cannot just ship them, they must accompany folks traveling to the country.

We would ask you to prayerfully consider donating the above products to our partners in need in Cuba. If a monetary contribution is better for you, please indicate "Meds for Cuba" and leave in the church office.

Thank you,
Jean Magee Robin Faucette Mary Pace
