Dear Parent or Guardian,

Colorado Early Colleges recognizes the need to provide computer access from home. As such, Colorado Early Colleges (CEC) is committed to ensuring students have a device to use for remote learning. The school will loan a device to students who qualify to support their learning.

It is the policy of CEC to maintain a technology environment that promotes ethical, responsible, and safe behavior in all online network activities while a student uses any school-assigned device. Use of technology resources in a disruptive, inappropriate, illegal or unsafe manner undermines the school objectives and will not be tolerated. Students who accidentally access unacceptable material shall immediately notify a parent or appropriate school personnel (teacher, counselor, administrator, or IT staff member). This disclosure may serve as a defense against allegations that the user has intentionally violated this policy.

Technology Resources, Internet Safety Responsible Use Policy for Students on the CEC website.

Students will be expected to treat school issued devices with respect and care. Students will be expected to ensure the serial number, barcode, and/or Student ID is securely attached to any school issued device. If a student willfully damages a school owned device, restitution will be paid. If restitution is not paid, the student will have technology privileges removed. This will also be tied to participation in graduation ceremonies.
