Early Childhood Center (ECC) Refund Policy

1. Deposits for all ECC programs are non-refundable.
2. The annual security fee is not refundable.
3. If a child withdraws before the start of a class, the following tuition refund policy applies:
 - a. Through June 30, the tuition / program payments received, less the deposit and security fee, may be refunded if the class has reached its capacity and has a waiting list. If a class has not reached capacity enrollment, there is no refund.
 - b. As of July 1, there is no refund of the tuition / program payment if the child withdraws before the start of the class unless:
 - i. Temple Sinai cannot accommodate your child's needs or
 - ii. Legal documentation is provided that you have relocated outside of the area.
4. If it is determined by the ECC that the child not attend (in the best interests of the child and the ECC), the policy is as follows:
 - a. If it is within one month of the start of the term, tuition paid (minus the deposit and security fee) shall be refunded.
 - b. If it is after one month of the start of the term, tuition refund will be pro-rated on the period that school was attended; the deposit and security fee will not be refunded or pro-rated.
