Visioning Onward

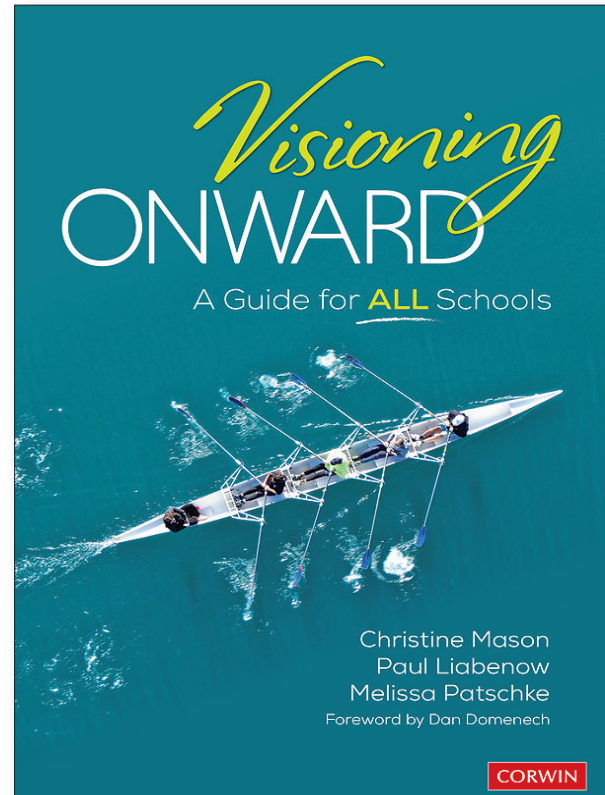

A Guide for All Schools

Christine Mason, Paul Liabenow, Melissa Patschke

This book provides school leaders with a practical guide for creating a vision that can transform any and all schools into 21st century learning environments – environments that strengthen student engagement and cognition, provide safe and nurturing conditions for learning, and produce students who have the skills, knowledge and dispositions to be successful in their life, work, and community.

This book:

- Details the why and how for developing a sustainable, yet practical 21st Century Learning vision for your learning community.
- Highlights lessons learned about what exemplary schools are doing to turn their visions into reality.
- Shares common trends that have emerged across schools and appear to be at the heart of impactful, positive change.
- Explains key strategies and tools for clarifying collective beliefs and building a shared vision.
- Suggests the use of practical implementation ideas provided from exemplary school leaders.
