

An Heirloom Bamboo Fly Rod Can Be Yours – Fish it With Chris Scalley!

There's something very special about holding a $2,500 bamboo fly rod in your hands. This feeling of holding and now owning such a rod can be yours for the price of a $10 raffle ticket. And, we've added a ½ day fishing trip on the Hooch with Chris Scalley of River Through Atlanta to break in your new rod.

This year, our special gear raffle features an heirloom quality rod built by J.D. Wagner of Wagner Rods: wagnerrods.com. The rod was donated to the chapter by chapter member Bob Bagurski. This is an 8' rod and is a 5/6 weight. Two tips are included as well as a rod sock and metal rod tube. It's a beautiful rod with honey-colored flaming of the bamboo.

For this very special raffle we are opening up the raffle to all other Trout Unlimited Chapters in Georgia, The Georgia Women's Fly Fishers, Atlanta Fly Fishing Club, North Georgia Trout Online, and TU chapters across the country. ONLY 500 tickets are being sold for this raffle. Tickets will be available at the March chapter meeting and are now available online.

Once the 500 tickets are sold there are no more. Your chances are very good to win...just buy more than one! Note: a small processing charge will be added to each ticket purchased online.

The winning ticket will be drawn at the May chapter meeting, or a subsequent chapter meeting once all tickets are sold.

Buy your tickets at the March 27 chapter meeting or online today!
