Re: Consolidation Operations - Expansion to Hear Certain Nonessential Matters

Dear Suffolk County Legal Community,

I am writing as a follow up to my April 13, 2020 letter to you. On April 8, 2020 the Chief Administrative Judge for the New York State Courts, Lawrence K. Marks, issued Administrative Order 85-20, copy attached. The Order provides for the conferencing of pending nonessential matters. Cases scheduled for these conferences will be upon initiative of the Court and, where appropriate, at the request of counsel.

Emails are listed below for all Judicial Parts in Suffolk County. These Part emails may be utilized by the bar to request a conference with the Court. Opposing counsel should also be copied on this request for a conference.

The decision whether to grant a request for a conference on a matter is within the discretion of the Court. These conferences will be conducted via Skype and via telephone. As Part of this process, the Court may request that counsel set up a call in number for a conference call on a specific date and time. In addition, many Parts will provide conference call numbers to the attorneys. Please be advised that individual Parts may have additional requirements to comply with in requesting a conference.

We look forward to continuing to work with all of you as we expand our virtual operations. I would again like to thank everyone in the legal community for their cooperation during this difficult period of time. I would also like to extend my thanks and appreciation to all of the Judges in Suffolk County and our incredible non judicial team for everything that they have done during this crisis. It is my hope that you and your family are able to stay safe and healthy.

Sincerely,

C. Randall Hinrichs
District Administrative Judge

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER OF THE
CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE JUDGE OF THE COURTS

Pursuant to the authority vested in me, and at the direction of the Chief Judge, I hereby promulgate, effective April 13, 2020, the following additional procedures and protocols to mitigate the effects of the COVID-19 outbreak upon the users, visitors, staff, and judicial officers of the Unified Court System.

1. In addition to essential court functions as set forth in AO/78/20, trial courts will address the following matters through remote or virtual court operations and offices:
 - Conferencing Pending Cases: Courts will review their docket of pending cases, assess matters that can be advanced or resolved through remote court conferencing, and schedule and hold conferences in such matters upon its own initiative, and where appropriate at the request of parties.
 - Deciding Fully Submitted Motions: Courts will decide fully submitted motions in pending cases.
 - Discovery and Other Ad Hoc Conferences: Courts will maintain availability during normal court hours to resolve ad hoc discovery disputes and similar matters not requiring the filing of papers.
2. Video Technology: Video teleconferences conducted by the court, or with court participation, will be administered exclusively through Skype for Business.
3. No New Filings in Nonessential Matters: No new nonessential matters may be filed until further notice; nor may additional papers be filed by parties in pending nonessential matters. The court shall file such orders in essential and nonessential matters as it deems appropriate.

Provisions of prior administrative orders inconsistent with this order shall be superseded by this order.

Chief Administrative Judge of the Courts
