 Need Medical Assistance? Doctors and medical professionals in the congregation are wearing special red kippot. If you or someone near you needs medical assistance, contact one of them.

If there is a disturbance near you during services, contact an usher. We kindly ask that every effort be made by our congregants to maintain a quiet, reflective decorum in the sanctuary and Margolis Hall. Do not enter or leave the sanctuary while the Torah Ark is open.

A notice about Live Streaming - By attending a service, you are giving Mount Zion your consent to use your image in our live streaming.

Livestreaming in Harris Chapel - Available in the chapel for families and others who may need a break from the sanctuary service but still want to watch the services. The space is open to all, but note that it is designed for those with young children or others who may need to move around.

Fragrances - We request that all worshipers refrain from using products for the purpose of adding fragrance (e.g., lotions, perfumes, colognes) when you come to services. This will enable those who have severe allergies or chemical sensitivities to continue to worship with our community.

Accessibility - We have seats designated for wheelchairs, e-readers, ASL interpretation, lights for prayer books, and a single unisex bathroom near the kitchen. Please see an usher if there is anything we can do to assist you.

Please turn off cell phones during services.

Harvest the Joy of Sukkot with Mount Zion

Sun, Oct 9, 4:30-6:15 pm - Open Sukkah for MZ members

Violin:	Adam Dorn
Choirs:	Shir Tzion, Shir Chants

YOM KIPPUR POETRY - 10:00 am - Harris Chapel

Michael Kuhne, Ph.D, has assembled a cast of congregants who will lead an inspiring exploration of the poetry and prose in Mishkan HaNefesh.

PARENTS & TOTS SERVICE - 10:00 am - Sanctuary

Designed for age zero through 1st Grade & families. All are welcome.

First 15 minutes will be for greeting/activity followed by a 30-minute service.

We use Gates of Awe prayerbook with spirited music and prayers. Our rabbis tell a creative and inspiring story. All children, regardless of age, and those without children are welcome to join us for this uplifting service. Kol Nidre will be played on violin by Lilith Greene-Friedman.

KIDS PROGRAM - 10:00 am - 2nd - 6th Graders - Johnson Social Hall

Students are invited to participate in hands-on activities related to being a MENSCH with a LEV TOV (a person with a good heart). We will REFLECT on relationships with family and friends and RENEW our commitment to choosing our words carefully. Activities will be different than the ones we did on Rosh Hashanah.

TEEN SERVICE - 11:00 am - 7th - 12th Graders - Johnson Social Hall

We will use the Mishkan HaNefesh Machzor for the Days of Awe that the teens receive as a gift when they become B'nei Mitzvah (and we will have extras available). These services are intended for 7th-12th graders and will be interactive and engaging.

SERVICE OF HEALING AND REFLECTION - 1:45 pm

Johnson Social Hall

This service is based on High Holy Day themes, and enhanced with the soothing sounds of harp and flute, this service offers a sacred space for reflection about what we need to feel more whole in the coming year.

Harp: Andrea Stern Flute: Luke Pickman

CHAIR YOGA - 1:45 pm - ZaiKaner/Perwien Terrace

Led by Mount Zion member and yoga teacher, Susan Bernhardt, and Cantor Spilker. All movements will be done in a chair, will be accessible, and can be done in dress clothes, though long skirts or slacks are recommended.

HIGH HOLY DAY STUDY - 1:45 pm - Bloom Library

Emerging from the Pandemic: Finding a New Balance: We will read the rich Talmudic story of Rabbi Shimon bar Yochai and his son as they hid from the Romans for thirteen years in a cave. As they emerged, their zeal about the way the world "ought to be" blinded them until they learned better. Rabbi Spilker will lead this participatory text-study.

Yom Kippur Fast Appeal

At this season of repentance, please donate to this appeal at least the amount you and your household might otherwise spend on a day's worth of food. Donate at mzion.org or look for baskets in the lobby.

Yom Kippur Pulpit Flowers

In loving memory of Lil and Max Levy by Sue Leonard and family and Stan Wolfson (z'l) and family; in memory of the Morris Harris family and in memory of Ike & Bertha Lederer by the Harris family through a contribution to the Bertha Lederer Fund.
