

DAVID DUSEK
SARASOTA, FL

David is the founder of Rough Cut Men Ministries—a live, interactive men's experience to get men talking about what's really going on in their lives. David's vision is to get men engaged the "other six days of the week" and particularly where their families are concerned. He travels around the world for the ministry and U.S. Army, where he has spoken to thousands of men, engaging them with one another in a David and Jonathon model of friendship.
He lives with his family in Sarasota, Florida.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

- Men's ministry
- Spiritual warfare

CREDENTIALS

- Author of the Amazon #1 bestselling book, Rough Cut Men: A Man's Battle Guide to Building Relationships with Each Other and with Jesus.
- Launched his own ministry, Rough Cut Men Ministries, an interactive men's experience using a strategic combination of action movie sequences, real world current events, Biblical truth and squad-sized discussion times to engage men and embolden them to step into the battles they face in their lives as courageously as they do on the battlefield.
- David has spoken at the United States Naval Academy, the United States Military Academy at West Point, Joe Gibbs Racing, to iconic Army units like the 101st Airborne Division, 7th Special Forces Group and 1st Cavalry Division, and at numerous Army installations in the US, Germany and Korea.
- The Rough Cut Men Movie Experience has been introduced to virtually every major Christian denomination in America, and has been a part of over 1,000 men's gatherings and retreats since 2007.
- David is a frequent keynote speaker at PromiseKeepers New Zealand, Iron Sharpens Iron Men's Conferences and denominational men's conferences worldwide.

WHAT'S DIFFERENT ABOUT DAVID?

- David did not grow up in a Christian home, instead coming to a relationship with Christ later in life. Armed with a unique experience and perspective, David then put his faith to work, traveling the world to help tough guys learn to be transparent with one another and with Jesus.

AUDIENCES

- Christian men of all ages
- Pastors, small group leaders
- Men's conferences
- Military veterans
- Active duty military, military chaplains

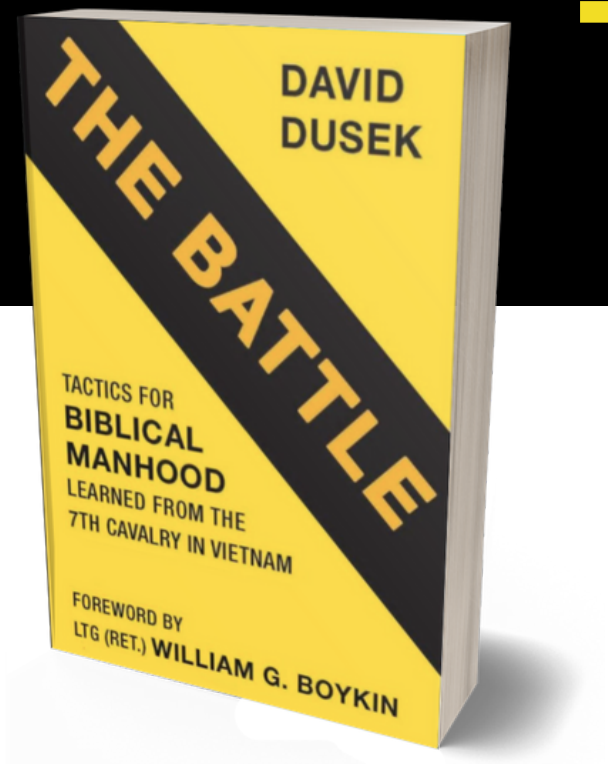

FINDING HIM ONLINE

Website: https://roughcutmen.org
Social: https://twitter.com/roughcutmen, https://www.facebook.com/roughcutmen/

AVAILABILITY

- David is widely available seven days per week
- Avail via phone, Skype/Zoom
- Avail to travel
- Located in eastern time zone
- To book an interview or for additional information, contact Jason Jones / Jones Literary at (512) 720-2996 orvia email at jason@jonesliterary.com

TO BOOK DAVID, CONTACT: JASON@JONESLITERARY.COM

THE BATTLE

Tactics for Biblical Manhood Learned from the 7th Cavalry in Vietnam

Victory in the battle of life comes by the hand of solid tactics, the undying resolve to win and the unbreakable bonds of battle-hardened brotherhood. Using content from We Were Soldiers and interviews with those who were in the brutal conflict portrayed in that film, David Dusek shows men how to defend themselves and those around them from the attacks of Satan seeking to steal, kill, and destroy.

THE BOOK ENCOURAGES CONVERSATIONS ABOUT:

- Conflict resolution
- Spiritual warfare
- How men can step up and engage the conflicts in their marriages, careers, lives with courage and grace

WHY IS IT RELEVANT?

- Highly practical, not theoretical, guidance. I.e., a "How-To" handbook, helping men understand the enemy's tactics and how to be on the winning side of every engagement.
- Men must be adequately prepared for all the tricks and deception a wily enemy can throw at them.
- Now more than ever, amidst unprecedented uncertainty, men need to step into, not run from, conflict and lead their families courageously.
- Few pastors discuss spiritual warfare, leaving Christians rather unprepared for what they face every day as believers.
- Men today are conflicted and confused over what a man is supposed to be, because we no longer live in a society that values moral courage or the warrior ethos.
- Families, generations are at stake. As fathers and husbands, men are tasked with leading their families. That being said, in the grand "formation" of an army at home, men are the officers. And to that end, based upon the tactic of "Kill the leader, kill the unit," men are invariably the primary target of the enemy.
- Most men today have hundreds of acquaintances, and no real friends

ENDORSEMENTS

"Perfectly titled, The Battle by David Dusek goes straight to the heart of issues facing today's Christian men. Illustrating the precepts of biblical manhood in the context of a legendary battle during the Vietnam war, makes this book appealing and powerful. After reading it, you'll want to give a copy to all the men and boys in your life. This book is a keeper."
—LtCol Oliver L. North USMC (Ret), bestselling author of The Rifleman and host of the Real American Heroes podcast.

"Great stories often teach great life lessons. Such is the case in David Dusek's book, The Battle, detailing the fight at Ia Drang, Vietnam. Riveting and compelling, David has done a masterful job of using this story to open our eyes as men to the spiritual fight we are in. But even more important, he shows us through military metaphors, how to win at manhood. Highly practical; I highly recommend it."
—Dr. Robert Lewis, author, Men's Fraternity Founding Partner, BetterMan

"No matter where you look, life is a battle. From the first pages of Genesis thru the final chapters of Revelation, the Bible is replete with the vocabulary of war. War is probably the single greatest constant in earth history. So how does a guy survive? David Dusek provides some direction. Know your enemy. Keep your kit at the ready. Stay together. Never quit."
—Stu Weber. pastor and author of Tender Warriors and Four Pillars of a Man's Heart

"... a pre-fight battle brief, written by one rough cut man to other rough cut men, on how to survive on a planet at war against everything they hold dear."