

SERGEY RAKHUBA

PRESIDENT, MISSION EURASIA

As Mission Eurasia's president, Sergey Rakhuba casts the strategic vision for the organization and plays a leading role in developing and implementing strategic ministry models designed to transform the spiritual landscape of Eurasia.

Originally from Ukraine and a resident for many years of Moscow, he has helped to establish 52 Evangelism and Church-Planting Centers in key regions of Eurasia, each of which provides training in evangelism and church planting for Christian workers and serves as a network for the distribution of Christian training materials and other resources for evangelism and growth. Evangelists have planted over 1,000 new churches with the training and resources they've received through these centers.

A graduate of Moody Bible Institute, where he studied International Ministries and Evangelism, Sergey and his wife, Tanya, have three children and live near Franklin, TN.

WHO IS MISSION EURASIA ?

GOD'S CHURCH RISING FROM THE ASHES OF COMMUNISM

Mission Eurasia trains, equips, and mobilizes national Christian leaders throughout the former Soviet Union and Israel who are engaging in evangelism, church planting, holistic ministries and church growth to transform their countries for Christ. Founded in 1991 in the wake of the collapse of the Soviet Union, Mission Eurasia began focusing more strategically on leadership training by preparing the young generation of emerging Christian leaders for ministry in their churches, communities, and nations. Today, under the leadership of Sergey Rakhuba, Mission Eurasia works in 13 countries of Eurasia and Israel to train, equip, and mobilize the next generation of Christian leaders to transform their nations for Christ through strategic, holistic ministry.
