PROBE MINISTRIES

Probe Ministries was founded in 1973 by James F. Williams Jr. and Jon Buell, who sought to form a ministry that would bridge the frontier between the agonizing questions man asks and the profound answers the Gospel offers. Probe's mission is to present the Gospel to communities, nationally and internationally, by providing life-long opportunities to integrate faith and learning through balanced, biblically-based scholarship, training people to love God by renewing their minds and equipping the Church to engage the world for Christ.

RELIGIOUS VIEWS & PRACTICES: A PROBE MINISTRIES SURVEY

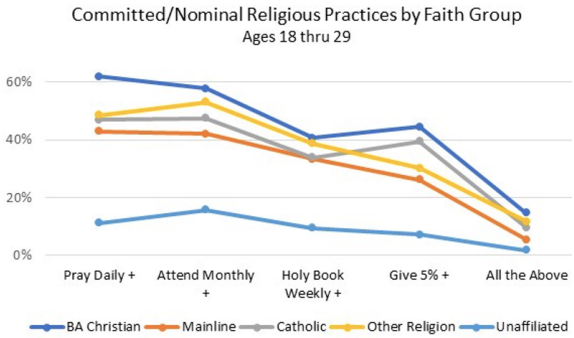

WHAT IS IT?

A decade in the making, the Religious Views and Practices Survey is an in-depth examination of the results of two surveys conducted by Probe Ministries—in 2010 and 2020—and what those results and 10-year trends say about the religious views and practices of Americans.

WHAT'S COVERED

American Religious Affiliations Over Time
Which groups are walking away from faith? Where are they going? Are there any faith groups/affiliations that are growing?
Americans and a Christian Biblical Worldview
The percentage of born again Christians that possess a biblical worldview has been cut in half over the last decade. How could this happen and how can we change it?
Religious Practices in America
How committed are Americans to prayer, church attendance, study and tithing?
Pluralism and Tolerance
The views of young adult Americans, in general and born again young adults, in particular, regarding pluralism and tolerance are key indicators of religious trends. What do the indicators and trends say?

Other topics include:
Basic Christian beliefs
A Closer Look at the Unaffiliated
Witnessing to Others
Science and Religion
Sexuality
Other Cultural Topics

TOPICAL QUESTIONS:

- What are the most alarming differences between Americans' religious views and practices from 10 years ago and today?
- So much is reported today about the “nones” or the 'unaffiliated' (atheist, agnostic, no preference). To what or whom do we owe the dramatic growth of this group?
- What is the relationship between a Christian worldview and religious practices?
- What percentage of Christians actually believe what the Bible says about God, Jesus, salvation and other issues?
- What percentage of Christians believe what the Bible says about sexual behavior?
- What can Christians and the church do to stem the tide?
- Who do Americans today believe that God is?
- Is Gen-Z the generation that ends Christian influence in America?
- What effect do you believe politics and the pandemic have had?
- As a layperson/believer/individual, what can you do in a culture that is increasingly hostile towards faith and traditional values?

Steve Cable is the Senior Vice President of Probe Ministries. He speaks for Probe conferences and writes for the national Probe radio broadcast. He leads in developing strategies to expand the impact of Probe’s resources. A key focus of his work is analyzing survey data on religious and cultural beliefs to understand the underlying trends in our society. Some of this work is found in his book, 'Cultural Captives: The Beliefs and Behavior of American Young Adults'. Steve played an integral role in bring the Religious Views & Practices Survey to life.
Steve and his wife Patti have served as Bible teachers for over 40 years, helping people apply God’s word to every aspect of their lives.

HOW IS AMERICAN CHRISTIANITY FARING IN OUR HOSTILE CULTURE?
