Ken Pokalsky is responsible for management of The Business Council's government affairs staff and the Council's overall legislative and regulatory advocacy efforts. He is also directly responsible for the Council's lobbying on economic development and taxation issues. New York State's economic recovery is a major topic, yet this year there are proposals for new taxes, labor law mandates, and other burdens on statewide employers. Join us to learn about major initiatives and risks being considered in Albany.

Adam Vogel joined the Utica Comets, Utica City FC and the Adirondack Bank Center in Dec 2019 as the Senior Vice President of Ticket Sales, Services and Operations. He is excited to be working with the loyal and passionate fan base of the Mohawk Valley region. It is his mission to help create a 'best-in-class' experience for clients and supporters. He will be providing info about the once-in-a-lifetime chance to have your name or company logo displayed on a custom brick wall at the Adirondack Bank Center for generations to come!

The Alliance
includes

23

area chambers
of commerce
and partnering organizations in

6

counties of NYS

*As an umbrella
organization,
the Chamber*

*Alliance's purpose is to address regional concerns of the Mohawk Valley business community. This united association among chambers and affiliate partners provides a structure to address business-related issues, such as tourism,
economic development,
business/community promotion, and workforce development.*

*The Alliance endeavors to represent and promote the collective interests of the business community of the Mohawk Valley—that geographic area which includes, but is not limited to, Herkimer County, Oneida County, Madison
County, Otsego County, and Fulton & Montgomery Counties.*

The Chamber Alliance was established in 1997, advocating strength in unity for the Mohawk Valley of Central New York
