

Greenwich Sandblast Festival 2019

The Town of Greenwich annual Sandblast Festival, hosted by the Greenwich Arts Council and the Department of Parks and Recreation was held on Saturday, July 27. The beach was sun and sculpture filled! Beach-goers enjoyed building in the sand and showing their creative sculptures to the judges and spectators.

There was a wide array of creative sand sculptures, including a shipwreck, great white sharks, squids, mermaids, a pool table, and even a living room big enough to provide a place for over a dozen people to lounge on the beach! Those that weren't sculpting enjoyed listening to live music on the patio as well as walking up and down the beach to see all the sculptures. All those that participated received a ribbon and free-mini juice coupon from sponsor Meli-Melo. The top 4 sculptures chosen by the judges received special prizes from sponsor Beachmate as well as some additional prizes from Parks and Recreation.
