

AR IN ARLINGTON

June 5 2021 • 12:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.

You are invited to explore five of central Arlington's unique galleries in an evening of fine art presented by the Arlington Art Dealers Association

THE UPSTAIRS GALLERY

Since 1968, The Upstairs Gallery has exhibited paintings, ceramics, and sculpture in a range of styles from traditional to contemporary. Our June 5th show entitled Crowded Spaces, will feature paintings by emerging artist Treslyn Shipley. Treslyn paints groups of people, whose humanity emerges in their engagement with each other.

1038 W. Abram St. (817) 277-6961

CONTEMPO ART GLASS GALLERY

Opened in 2020 – Contempo Art Glass Gallery is focused on bringing glass art and classes to Arlington. The gallery features glass creations (fused, blown, mosaic and stained), metal, wood and mixed media. Art works are created by national and local artists offering a variety of styles and prices. For our June event, guest artist Patty Marshall will be in the glass gallery showing her work. Debbie Malone will be teaching a stained glass class.

1101 S. Bowen Rd. (817) 673-2949

COLLEGE TOWN RENAISSANCE CENTER

Since 2019, the College Town Renaissance Center (CTRC) has been a welcoming place where people can share art, conversations, books, writings, and cultural foods. It is a venue for established artists, emerging artists, and collectors alike, and a place for your own event. Our June show, 30 Americans+20 More will feature works by 20 African American masters in varied genres, styles, and media. It will complement the Arlington Museum of Art's show 30 Americans. Pieces from the CTRC's permanent collection, The Henderson-Light Collection of American Art and Art from the African Diaspora, will also be on display.

1209 W. Abram St. – (817) 675-3103

CREATE ARLINGTON

Create Arlington is a coworking and studio space in the Downtown Arlington Cultural Arts District. Create Arlington enables people to pursue their passions by fostering and creative and entrepreneurial community. For the first AADA Gallery night, a group exhibit of 12 artists entitled Father-Father will feature art that responds to the question: How impactful is fatherhood? The goal is to spark healthy dialogue and healing within families and their community. The exhibit runs June 5 - July 18, 2021.

306 W. Main St. – (682) 248-8424

KAR-LYNN ART & FRAMES

Established in 1978, Kar-Lynn Art & Frames has served the Arlington community with custom framing for more than forty years. We recently added a curated gallery space that showcases the works of local artists: photography, mixed-media and watercolor paintings, turned wood creations, and sculpture. Works currently on display include pieces by Sarah Henry, Tiffany Spencer, Sands Weems, Russ Van Der Linden, and South African sculptor Ken Maloney.

1051 W. Abram St. – (817) 265-7392

AADA

Arlington Art Dealers Association

Our mission is to promote the arts in Arlington. Foster a working relationship between the community, galleries, museums, and the university.