

Interested in a Summer Internship Opportunity with FMBK?

The Los Angeles family law firm, FMBK, seeks up to two-three motivated and hardworking Summer Associates who are exploring a career in family law and currently in their second year of law school.

As one of Southern California's largest family law firms, we are able to give our Summer Associates an extensive introduction to all aspects of family law. Our Summer Associates experience: conducting legal research; drafting of interoffice memorandum; drafting pleadings; propounding and responding to discovery requests; attending client meetings, depositions and court hearings.

Our Summer program runs for roughly 8-10 weeks in the summer of 2023. FMBK pays our associates a $1,500 a week salary, and reimbursements for travel, lunch meetings or parking. At FMBK, we are now operating in person at our three office locations: West LA, Calabasas and Glendale.

If you are interested in applying to our program, you can email your resume directly to our Marketing Manager Leslie Abel label@fmbklaw.com

Or find the application on Symplicity.com or your school's resume collect portal via the below title and job number

2023 FMBK Summer Associate - 4553959

We will have all resumes collected by the end of November

After reviewing all applicant's resumes, we will start reaching out to selected candidates for an interviews by early December