Through to the use of technology, we can help you find finance fast. And it doesn't matter if you are in the office or are working from home. If your business could do with a funding injection to help you recover, then please follow the link below.

We look forward to helping you beat the deadline, and get a CBILS loan while they are still available.

How to apply online for a coronavirus business loan

CBILS covers Term Loans, Asset Finance, Invoice Finance and Revolving Credit (Overdrafts). Please also note that lenders have agreed they will not take personal guarantees as security for lending below up to £250,000.

The CBILS application requires more detail than a standard business finance application, which is why the funding platform is streamlining the process to save you time.

The main reason for the additional information is to help lenders understand the impact of the coronavirus pandemic on your trading pattern. Typically, lenders will ask for two to three years of trading history in the form of management accounts that include your turnover and expenses.

Check CBILS eligibility in minutes

No credit check or waiting for appointments. Check online in minutes if you qualify for a CBILS business loan facility.
