VISIONS

The newsletter of
Forrest Burdette Memorial United Methodist Church

Joe Kenaston, Senior Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This September, we discerned God's vision for Forrest Burdette for our future ministry. On Sunday, September 10th, the congregation adopted the new Vision for the church. The church received 112 responses of which 110 indicated that they believed that the Vision Report reflected the call of God for the future of Forrest Burdette. Two response cards did not indicate that they supported that view. Fourteen cards had comments &/or suggestions on them that will be shared with the Vision Team.

I am excited that the overwhelming majority (98.2%) supported the vision for Forrest Burdette. Our new mission statement is "Sharing Christ's Love with Our Community." I understand that our community starts where we live and extends well beyond the valley, and, in fact, our mission has a worldwide reach.

Our church is committed to these four areas of focus for making our new mission a reality:

1. Establishing New Connections in the Community
2. Generating Connections within the Church
3. Deepening Individual Connections with Christ
4. Connecting Our Faith to Everyday Life

As we now move forward into the implementation phase of our vision, we want to ensure that we are promoting a culture of empowerment or "permission giving ethos," designed to encourage creativity in thinking and actions among all of us. We need to ask ourselves, does the proposed ministry, mission, or action fulfill our church's stated mission? Does it fall under one of the four areas of focus? If yes, then speak to me or one of the staff or our Lay Leader, Annette, and we'll pray with you and seek to find others to help in the ministry.

This is our Call to Action! Please prayerfully consider where God is guiding you to be at this point.

What has been placed on your heart or in your thoughts? Are you being called to step out of your comfort zone? We have all been given different gifts and talents to be used for the glory of God. Whether you are called to be "in front of" or "behind the scenes of" a particular outreach or ministry, know that God will equip you and continue to walk alongside you on this journey. Saying YES to God's call will help you grow as a disciple of Jesus Christ. As a congregation moving through these four areas of focus, we will grow and mature collectively, ultimately bringing glory to God.

It is exciting to be a part of a church that is committed to "sharing Christ's love with our community!"

Grace and peace, Joe

Thank you for all the school supplies we collected in August and September. We delivered items to four elementary schools as well as the middle school and high school. All the schools were so very appreciative of the donations and shocked at the generosity of our church. Thank you for pouring blessings onto the children of our community.

This Sunday, we start a series based on Proverbs. The series is entitled, “Words for Wise Living.” Within the series we will have a three-week section on family relationships. The series will help us live as God invites us to the banquet of wisdom. The worship experiences will be marked by joyous music, moving prayers, challenging scriptures, and sermons that cause us to rethink and, perhaps, change the way we live.

After the series on “Wise Living” we have the joy of hosting Bishop Mande Muyombo during our morning worship. He is the Bishop of the UMC in the Democratic Republic of the Congo. Bishop Mande is a leader of the UMC on the continent of Africa and one of the leaders of the world-wide church. He is fluent in several languages and is extremely well spoken in English. This will be one of the worship highlights of the entire year!

Cathy Daley, Director

Children’s Outreach Ministries (COM)

We are still full, hiring new staff, and enjoying each and every one of the children.

We have begun a “caught being kind” campaign and are taking photos of the children when we “catch” them being especially kind. Those photos are then hung up in the hallway by our “Hero” poster.

We have added some new picnic tables to the younger side of the playground and are loving this little bit cooler weather to take advantage of being outside as much as possible.

The children are beginning to acclimate to their new classrooms and are making friends with the few additional children we have had room for. New babies are arriving into the world, and while we pray for all of our parents, we say a little extra prayer for those welcoming a new baby to the family.

As always we thank you for the continued support the church offers. By allowing us to use the spaces we do, you are directly impacting families in the community, as they are able to go to their individual places of employment with the peace of mind that their child is being cared for in a quality program, a program that not only serves the educational and social emotional needs of their children, but begins to guide them on their own relationship with God too. It is truly a blessing for each of us to be a part of that, and we are grateful for this opportunity we have been given.

♥ Have fun, and make a difference. ♥
