

Wednesday Night Groups

Beginning September 4, 2019 @ 6:30 p.m.

Chris Clark – “How shall we then live?”

(Bring your Bible; no additional study book to purchase)

As the question from the rich young ruler goes, “What must I do to inherit eternal life?”, we often ask the same thing either out loud or in our attitudes. The Christian understands that we are saved by Grace through Faith, but what are we to do once we are saved? Is there a particular way we are to live which is different from the world, and if so what does that look like? We will spend the fall semester looking at what Jesus had to say about how the Christian should live. Please bring your Bibles!

Debby Cunningham – Glory Days: Trusting in the God Who Fights for You by Max Lucado ($11)

“We all face them. Strongholds with a strong hold on our lives. Roadblocks to our joy. Obstacles in our marriages. Fortresses of fear blocking us from peace. How can we bring down these walls that keep us from the future God promises? Remember the story of Joshua and the battle of Jericho? Max Lucado says the book of Joshua is in the Bible to remind us of one thing: God fights for us. We can overcome, because He has already overcome. We win, because God's already won.”

Ron Delph – Paul: His Life & Teaching by Jack Kuhatschek ($8)

“The apostle Paul led a dramatic and fascinating life from his conversion on the road to Damascus to his imprisonments to his speeches in the public square. His letters shaped the believers in the early church just as they do today. In this study guide, we will survey both the highlights of his life and the core teachings in his writings.”

Don Gatewood – 1st & 2nd Timothy

(Bring your Bible; no additional study book to purchase)

Join us for good Biblical instruction for the times we live in, found in the 1st and 2nd books of Timothy.

Ed Grant – The Gospel of Mark

(Bring your Bible; no additional study book to purchase)

Mark was the first Gospel writer. When Mark wrote this Gospel he was a very close associate with Peter. The words he writes are predominantly those of Peter as he listens to the stories and accounts of the great Apostle. Mark's Gospel became a primary source as Matthew and Luke were preparing to write their Gospels. In many ways Mark set the standard for telling the story of Jesus. Join me as we study this great Gospel.

Middle School & High School Youth Group – Fun, fellowship, snacks and Jesus!

We invite you to join us throughout the year during our Wednesday and Sunday Night Uth Group programs in Room 111.

Wednesday Evenings:

Large and Small Groups: 6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

Sunday Evenings:

Uth Lead: Youth Leadership Training, 5:30 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.

Uth Bible Study: 6:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m.

Children – Wednesday COOL Kids is a time of fun, music, and learning! We use Group's “Dig In” curriculum where kids learn from digging deeper into the Bible. Three classes make learning easy: Preschool (age 2+); K-2nd grade; and 3rd-5th grade. Kids K-5 join our Kids Choir; children learn songs and praise God through music. Come join us on Wednesdays from 6:30-7:30 p.m.! Nursery for under age 2 is provided.

Midweek Daytime Groups

Ed Grant – Midweek Daytime Bible Study

Wednesdays, 10:45 a.m., beginning September 4

(Bring your Bible; no additional study book to purchase)

Rosemary Cook & Cindy Woodworth – Circle of Friends

Thursdays, 10:00 a.m., beginning September 12

Nothing to Prove by Jennie Allen ($12)

Are you trying your best to measure up—yet you still feel as if you're losing ground? You are not alone. Jennie Allen understands the daily struggle so many of us face with the fear that we are not enough. And she invites us into a different experience, one in which our souls overflow with contentment and joy. As you wade into the refreshing truth of the more-than-enough life Jesus offers, you'll experience the joyous freedom that comes to those who are determined to discover what God can do through a soul completely in love with Him.
