VISIONS

The newsletter of Forrest Burdette Memorial United Methodist Church

Joe Kenaston, Senior Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

In the prophet Isaiah we find God offering these words to the Israelites and us: “I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth; do you not perceive it?” (Is. 43:19). The context of this statement and question is the Israelites are in exile, and Cyrus of Persia has just conquered the Babylonian Empire. This geopolitical event has triggered the possibility of the refugees, including the Israelites, to return to their homelands. Those in the former northern kingdom of Israel have been in exile for almost 200 years, and those in the former southern kingdom of Judah have been gone for over a generation. The dream of going home is a remote and unlikely possibility. It would be easy to become complacent and give up on anything changing. Now God is saying, “I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth; do you not perceive it?”

At Forrest Burdette we have seen our church, and many others, adversely impacted by COVID, the change in attitudes about church involvement, and the decisions individuals and families make about how they spend their time. I invite you to look at what God is doing at Forrest Burdette. On the 19th of February, we received 13 new members. Our attendance has jumped up from the fall. During our conversation and prayers around stewardship, giving has increased. We have restarted Joy Fellowship. Our grief ministry is strong. We are increasing the use of our gym. The ministries with children and youth continue to be creative and fresh. We have restarted the acolyte ministry. We are doing a new pictorial directory. I believe God’s new thing is springing forth in many ways at Forrest Burdette.

Our Vision Team has been meeting since March of 2021. We have read a lot of resources (print and online), prayed, surveyed the church, asked the community what they knew about Forrest Burdette, prayed, and discussed some more, offered the Breakthrough Prayer as the prayer for our church asking God to guide us (“God, grant us the wisdom to know your plan for us and the strength to carry it out”). Our Vision Team’s theme verse is the Isaiah 43:19 quote used at the beginning of this letter.

The Vision Team needs your active participation over the next month. We will be launching simultaneously four Vision conversations on Sunday, March 19th, immediately after church:

- establishing new connections in the community (outreach)
- generating connections within the church (internal development)
- deepening individual connections with Christ (personal development)
- connecting faith to everyday life (application of faith).

It is anticipated that the 19th is the beginning of a conversation that will continue through April. We need your voice and input to help our church perceive what God is doing with us and where God is leading us in the years ahead. (There is an article in this newsletter that describes the event in a little more detail).

I look forward to participating with you in these vital conversations that will help all of us discern the new things of God that are springing forth.

Grace and peace, Joe

Cathy Daley, Director Children's Outreach Ministries

Wow! I can't believe it's time to gear up for summer!

Playground mulch has been ordered. This should be taken as one of the first signs of spring. The Early Ed. playground is in the hands of designers so that we can make some decisions as to what that will look like.

Summer Enrollment opened to existing families this week, and we will begin calling people on the waitlist next week if we have any available spaces.

The year just keeps going faster and faster.

Thanks for all that you do, to enable us to do what we do. Keep the prayers coming for each of our families and our staff, as well as our program.

♥ Have fun, and make a difference. ♥

200 Millionth Shoebox Delivered

For the first time in many years, Ukrainian Elizabeth Groff returned to her home country, joining Samaritan's Purse President Franklin Graham on Jan. 25 to celebrate and deliver the 200 millionth Operation Christmas Child shoebox gift to the war-torn country.

The milestone event, marking 30 years since the Samaritan's Purse project started in 1993, also marks nearly one year since the invasion of Ukraine last winter. And it's been nearly a year since Samaritan's Purse responded with relief, sending more than 40 DC-8 airlifts to provide the devastated country with emergency food, medical care, and relief supplies. Last week's DC-8 airlift carried more supplies and personnel to assist in our continued work in the country. And, in addition, the flight also carried dozens prayerfully-packed shoebox gifts, including the 200 millionth, which Groff was excited to deliver, herself, to a young girl in need.

She remembers receiving her own shoebox gift as a child during a time she described as "rock bottom."

"I was alone. I felt lost. That is where Jesus met me. He didn't leave me there," she said. "He showed me that He loved and cared for me through a simple gift—through a shoebox. These children are receiving the news of the Greatest Gift of All, the eternal love and hope of Jesus. I think about when I received my box and how it changed my life. That's my prayer for these children. I want them to know Jesus and remember this special day for the rest of their lives." Graham and Groff, joined by news anchor Greta Van Susteren, greeted the 75 children gathered in one of our many Ukrainian partner churches. Franklin was able to remind the children of God's love for them.

"Did you know that the Bible tells us that God loves us, and that everyone is special to Him?" Graham told the children. "God knows your name. He knows how many hairs that you have on your head. He knows everything about your life—and He loves you! And the Bible tells us that God loves us so much that He sent His Son from Heaven to this earth to save us."

Local teachers and pastors also walked the children through the Gospel using The Greatest Gift booklet, introducing them to Jesus Christ. Then Van Susteren counted down—in Ukrainian. Odyń! Dva! Try! (One! Two! Three!)

As the children began opening their boxes, Groff walked the milestone 200 millionth shoebox to an 8-year-old girl named Natalya, an orphan. That same shoebox had traveled across the United States with Groff who made stops at our ministry centers and at local churches to place specially selected items inside.

"This gift is for you from God," Groff told the little girl, whose eyes brightened with surprise at the special attention. She immediately zeroed in on the bright-yellow wind-up flashlight included among the items.

Samaritan's Purse will distribute more than 400,000 more Operation Christmas Child shoebox gifts throughout Ukraine this year. This year also, at least 120,000 Ukrainian children will participate in The Greatest Journey, our 12-lesson discipleship program for shoebox recipients.

Graham said that the ongoing relief efforts of Samaritan's Purse in the war-torn nation and our vibrant ministry through Operation Christmas Child are a testament to God's power at work through many faithful churches in Ukraine and surrounding countries.

"The need here is incredible. We're here to deliver these shoeboxes but also to meet with our church partners," Graham said. "The war has destroyed so much of this country, but the churches see this as an opportunity to reach out and to help their neighbors and do it in Jesus' Name. We have several thousand churches in Ukraine that we've been working with for 30 years. I can't control the politics, but I can control who I help, and we help whoever God puts in front of us. The only hope for this world is Jesus Christ."
