VISIONS

The newsletter of
Forrest Burdette Memorial United Methodist Church

Joe Kenaston, Senior Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Judi and I were in Pittsburgh at our god-son's wedding on Saturday. It was a joyous occasion. We have been good friends with his parents since well before he was born. One person who was at our table was a high school English teacher. She has twelfth graders this year. I asked her how the year had been going and she said, "great until Tuesday of this week." Being curious, I asked her what had happened on Tuesday. Thinking they may have completed their AP work, she surprised me by saying, "senioritis happened."

The students had had a great year up until Tuesday. They were attentive in class, well behaved, did their homework, and seemed to care about school and learning. I guess the fresh breeze of spring had blown through the classroom, and students decided to float along the air currents of "take it easy, we're almost done, and what does it matter" for the remainder of the school year. It has been many years since I was a high school senior or a college or grad school senior, but I remember when my internal countdown started. Prom, invitations to graduation, acceptance into college and four years later into seminary. It is easy to start thinking you have made it to "easy street."

This transition to senioritis is not unique to students. It can happen to all of us. I have friends who have retired, and sometime the year before they start an app on their phone that tells them months, weeks, days, and hours till they retire. That is senioritis! When you are transitioning to a new job, a new home, or a new community, senioritis can set in long before you move into whatever is next.

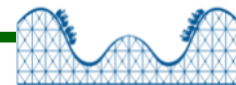

In the church, I believe that senioritis can set in after Easter or when summer starts. Through the years, I have seen it in church participation, attendance, giving, and activities. I know that the days grow longer and warmer, and we start doing activities outside and maybe travel a little more. After the winter cold (which was mild this year) and the spring rains, we are ready for May flowers and summer. Yet, we continue to need to fellowship with our brothers and sisters in faith, deepen in our spiritual life, worship God, serve God, share Christ's love, and excel in ministry. I encourage you to celebrate the changing seasons, the beginning of May, and the coming of summer, but also not to neglect prayer, worship, growing, and serving. Our faith will be strengthened by avoiding senioritis and continuing to grow.

Grace and peace,
Joe

Mission Trip 2023

This summer, we will travel to McDowell County, WV to serve from Friday, June 16 - Sunday, June 18. We will be immersed in the Appalachian culture of southern WV and learn about how faith has played an important role in Appalachian heritage. While doing so, we will also be providing clean up services to a historic miner monument, and we will host a community food event following worship services on Sunday. It will be a great opportunity to learn more about how mission work is needed everywhere, not just in other countries/states. Even right here in WV, we have plenty of opportunities to serve our neighbors. If you are interested in finding out more about this event, please contact David. Any student 5th grade and up is welcome to attend. We will also need a couple chaperones, so if you are interested in committing a weekend to service in southern WV, reach out to David at youth@forrestburdette.com.

Jayné Kirk Minister of Children & Families

May 3rd marks the end of our Wednesday evening programming, which also means that VBS season is beginning. Pray for our VBS that we can work together and connect in our community with families by providing a fun week of faith, fun, and learning. Keep our theme verse in your heart as we get ready to present Hero Hotline: Called together to serve God!

"So let's strive together for the things that bring peace and the things that build each other up." Romans 14:19

You can sign up to help by filling out a purple form at the Connection Center or talking to me. This year we want to do a science station. If you are interested in doing kid friendly experiments and connecting them to God's wonder – this would be a perfect way for you to get involved.

VBS is the Children's Ministries largest event of the year, and it is a mission of connection with our local families. You can also help by spreading the word and inviting friends and neighbors to join us June 25-29 for a family dinner and lots of fun.

Rev. Charles S. and Alma Thompson Memorial Scholarship

High School seniors, it's time to apply for the Rev. Charles and Alma Thompson Scholarship. The scholarship is for post-secondary education. Contact the church office to receive an application form. The deadline is May 14.

Worship for May

On April 30, we start a three-part sermon series based on tithing, God's generosity, and the joy of giving. As we reflect on our lives, we grow in our faith when we prioritize our time, resources, and commitments around God's will. The worship experiences will be marked by joyous music, moving prayers, challenging scriptures, and sermons that cause us to rethink and, perhaps, change the way we live. In addition, we will celebrate Confirmations with six of our youth and share in the joy of Pentecost.

April 30	Malachi 3:8-14 1 Corinthians 15:50 – 16:4	The Day Jesse James Came to Church
May 7	1 Kings 17:8-16	The Bottom of the Jar
May 14	2 Corinthians 8:1-15	The Privilege of Sharing
May 21	Scripture to be picked by the youth	Confirmation Sunday
May 28	Acts 2:1-21 Gen. 11:1-9	Pentecost: God Speaks to All

Children's Outreach Ministries (COM)

What a beautiful Spring we are having. I love hearing the birds first thing in the morning, seeing all of the green return to the trees, almost overnight, and getting to watch more and more bright flowers pop up. It's a beautiful time of year!

I'm also glad to see the big pile of engineered wood fiber playground mulch in the parking lot. It being there means we are one step closer to having our playground not only look better, but also be a safer space for all the children, both ours and the community using it. From what we have been told, the mulch should be installed by next week! Yay!

We have put in an order for new equipment on the Early Ed playground, and the Infants and Toddlers are LOVING having their own new playground!

We have been busy getting ready for summer, enrolling a few new students, as we were blessed to only have about 5 open spots available for the summer session and less than a dozen spots in the fall. This is definitely a blessing and a good problem to have, but there are so many people in need of quality care for their children. Please keep them in your prayers as they navigate a path to find what is best for their families.

As always, we are thankful for you, the church, for the space, support, and prayers you provide for us. We could not serve the families and children of the area without it. Thank you.

♥ Have fun, and make a difference. ♥
