STRANGERS' —THINGS—

The timing doesn't seem quite right since the pace has been somewhat breathless. It feels like yesterday that we left a Bethlehem stall in celebration of our Savior's birth. Lent shouldn't be lumped into our collective vocabulary at this point, should it? But alas, here we are. This biblical road we're on will soon wind down a Jerusalem street. From this vantage, you'll have to grab your binoculars to behold it.

When the view comes into focus, you'll see a path laden with palms. That route gave way to a week we call 'holy.' Yet, if you look closely enough, you'll notice the dusty path isn't just littered with leafy branches. There are other objects strewn along the roadside. They're almost like breadcrumbs to a 'Hansel-and-Gretel-fairy-tale-story' but far more significant and exceedingly relevant to our walk as disciples of Jesus.

If we assumed an investigatory posture, post-Palm Sunday, we could look down the path and pick up some things that were left, forgotten or forfeited to follow Jesus. They're residual clues connecting us to encounters with this Christ and His Kingdom economy that turned the world upside down—for good, forever. These strangers' things tell of stranger things: remarkable stories of transformation, clean slates, changed minds, risk-taking mission and an audacious lens through which to live life.

Starting with Ash Wednesday on the 18th, we'll traverse the path and follow Jesus through the Gospel of Luke as he sets his face to Jerusalem. With every step, we'll find that this road becomes increasingly more difficult to remain on—not because the terrain gets tougher, but rather the risks of discipleship get higher. One by one, piece by piece, object by object, we'll gather up these strangers' things that I pray will lead to even stranger things for us: renewed hearts, opened hands and invigorated disciples of Jesus who dare to live in ways that feel upside down.

-Pastor Jake

Luke Spurgeon Minister of Youth & Young Adults

We will be having a Youth Parent Meeting after church on Sunday, February 1st, in room 111. Parents, please remember to bring your summer calendars so we can plan ahead together.

I'm also really excited for youth group on February 1st! We'll be having our Youth Night Out that we had to postpone from January 25th. Meet at the church at 6:00 PM. I can't wait to see everyone there!

Super Bowl Sunday is coming! February 8th at 6:00 PM

Children & Family Ministries Spreading the Good News!

As you're planning for the warmer days ahead, make sure to mark your calendars for our 2026 Vacation Bible School: June 21-25 (and June 22-26 for those serving with the COM morning VBS). If you could save your BIG cardboard boxes for Julie Conley to use for VBS, please start doing so!

Sunday School for kindergarten through 5th grade children is held weekly at 9:15 a.m., in room 308. Children's Church, held during a portion of our Sunday morning worship service, follows Pastor Jake's weekly sermons and the scriptures he has selected for each sermon, in Byrd Hall. Join us!

Acolyte Training

A training for those who are interested in serving as an acolyte*, starting in 3rd grade and up, will be held in the sanctuary immediately after worship on Sunday, February 8th. Contact Mary Beth Stewart with any questions (304-638-1163).

*A person who assists in the worship service. Normally the acolyte serves by lighting and extinguishing the candles on the communion or altar table and distributing and collecting the offering plates. It is the custom in most local churches for the acolytes to be young persons, giving them an early opportunity to be participants in the service (umc.org).

Children's Outreach Ministries (COM)

Our children have been creating wintery artwork on these blustery days!

Attention: Knitters & Crocheters

We would like to know if there is interest in re-starting our "Hooks & Needles" program, which used to meet regularly to stitch prayer shawls among other things. The group changed over recent years as some of the faithful participants were no longer able to stitch or have passed away. If you would like to be part of getting this ministry up and running again, please call or text Sue Bennett at 304-932-3087.
