AUG 22-OCT 5

Nepantla is a Nahuatl word that means “in-between” and has come to be understood as a concept which expresses in-betweenness, liminal space and transition, especially as it relates to the cultural and spiritual identities of Mexican Americans and people of the borderlands.

As an artist, I create inside of Nepantla. I dialogue with color, symbol and meaning from ancient timelines. My works are a continuum of ancestral remembering— of what ceases to be dismembered, buried, and forgotten.
