Cheese Making 101

Learn 2 cheeses in 2 hours

Sunday March 30, 2025

4:00 pm-$50 per person

Saguaro Room-Bartender on duty

THESE CHEESES ARE READY THE SAME DAY!

Join our beginner-friendly class and event to learn how to make simple, delicious cheeses that you can enjoy the same day or within 24 hours! Each group of students will start with fresh milk and, step by step, transform it into scrumptious natural cheese snacks and a delightful Basket Cheese. You'll learn how to choose the best milk for cheese making and discover the role of rennet—an essential enzyme that turns milk into cheese. Plus, we'll reveal the secret behind the color of “yellow” cheese!

This class is perfect for beginners, as these cheeses are easy to make and require minimal specialized ingredients or equipment. Everything will be provided for the class. Not only is the process fun, but you'll also get to taste your freshly made cheese right away!

By the end of the class, you'll take home copies of the recipes, the knowledge to make cheese on your own, and of course—the cheese you created!
