

In life, you can have results or you can have excuses—but not both. Excuses keep you stuck, while results come from taking ownership, pushing through obstacles, and staying committed. The journey may be uncomfortable, but the reward of growth and purpose is always worth more than any excuse.

Did you know our Palo Verde/Cottonwood Fitness Center offers free orientation classes for anyone who would like to learn how to use our exercise and cardio machines? These sessions are a great way to build confidence, learn proper technique, and get the most out of your workouts.

Our very own Gayla leads the orientations, and she is incredibly knowledgeable and patient in showing members how to safely and effectively use the equipment. Whether you're brand new to the gym or just need a refresher, Gayla will guide you step by step. Remember—we're always here to help, encourage, and motivate you on your fitness journey!
