

Certified Canine Rehabilitation Nurse

Coral Springs Animal Hospital located in Coral Springs, Florida, is seeking a highly motivated, enthusiastic and experienced Certified Canine Rehabilitation Veterinary Nurse (CCRVN or CCRA) to join our growing Physical Rehabilitation Department in our newly designed space. Knowledge and experience in sedation and anesthesia are required to monitor patients for MRI, CTs, radiographs and minor procedures. Experience handling exotics and wildlife is preferred, but not required. We offer the following modalities: laser therapy, TUS, shockwave therapy, PEMF, cryotherapy, manual therapy, acupuncture, Chinese herbs, full equipment for therapeutic exercises, land treadmill, and underwater treadmill. Please email CV to dcappucci@coralspringsanimalhosp.com. For more information about the practice, visit coralspringsanimalhosp.com.

General Description: Performs and assists with all aspects of physical rehabilitation, pain management, anesthesia monitoring, client education and communications, general patient care, knowledge and maintenance of work area and equipment.

Typical Duties: Utilizes manual and technical abilities in order to rehabilitate patients under the care of the overseeing veterinarian, knowledge and understanding of common injuries, orthopedic and neurologic disease process and injuries, knowledge and understanding of manual therapy techniques, knowledge and understanding of therapeutic exercises and when to advance patient through treatment plan, understands and operates modalities and equipment; adheres to protocols, hospital policies and procedures, efficient in time management, understands proper Fear Free techniques for restraint and handling, utilizes exceptional communication skills with doctors, support staff, pet owners, referring veterinarians, and the general public.

Education and Experience Recommended: CVT, LVT, RVT, CCRVN or CCRA

E-mail: Please email CV to dcappucci@coralspringsanimalhosp.com.

For more information about the practice, visit coralspringsanimalhosp.com.